CONTENTS

| la                    | ble oj   | Cases   | X111   |  |  |
|-----------------------|--|---|--------|--|--|
| Table of Legislation  |  |   | xxxi   |  |  |
| List of Abbreviations |  |   | xxxvii |  |  |
|                       | innered of                                     |   |        |  |  |
| 1.                    | The Emergence of Public Benefit in Charity Law |   |        |  |  |
|                       | A.   | The English Model of Charity                  | 1.01   |  |  |
|                       | В.   | Charity Exported                              | 1.05   |  |  |
|                       | C.   | Public Benefit in Early Charity Law           | 1.18   |  |  |
|                       | D.   | Formalization                                 | 1.21   |  |  |
|                       | E.   | Statutory Reforms                             | 1.24   |  |  |
| 2.                    | The Elements of Public Benefit                 |   |        |  |  |
|                       | A.   | Introduction                                  | 2.01   |  |  |
|                       | B.   | Attempts at Twofold Classification            | 2.03   |  |  |
|                       | C.   | Beyond the Twofold Classification             | 2.09   |  |  |
|                       | D.   | The Four Elements of Public Benefit           | 2.15   |  |  |
|                       | E.   | Fault Lines in Charity                        | 2.20   |  |  |
| 3.                    | Conceptual Public Benefit                      |   |        |  |  |
|                       | A.   | Fundamentals                                  | 3.01   |  |  |
|                       | B.   | The Information Asymmetry in a Public Purpose | 3.07   |  |  |
|                       | C.   | Reconceptualizing the Heads of Charity        | 3.19   |  |  |
|                       | D.   | Demonstrating Conceptual Public Benefit       | 3.30   |  |  |
|                       | E.   | Conclusion                                    | 3.43   |  |  |
| 4.                    | Demonstrable Public Benefit                    |   |        |  |  |
|                       | A.   | Introduction                                  | 4.01   |  |  |
|                       | B.   | Direct and Indirect Benefit                   | 4.03   |  |  |
|                       | C.   | Balancing Benefits and Detriments             | 4.07   |  |  |

Contents

|     | D.                             | Indemonstrable Benefit   | 4.10         |  |  |
|-----|--------------------------------|--|--------------|--|--|
|     | E.                             | The Relationship Between Conceptual and Demonstrable                               | / 1 /        |  |  |
|     | _                              | Public Benefit   | 4.16         |  |  |
|     | F.                             | Conclusion   | 4.32         |  |  |
| 5.  | Cross-Sectional Public Benefit |  |              |  |  |
|     | A.                             | Introduction   | 5.01         |  |  |
|     | B.                             | General Principles   | 5.04         |  |  |
| 1-  | C.                             | A Purpose Apart: The Prevention or Relief of Poverty                               | 5.28         |  |  |
|     | D.                             | Presumptions Revisited   | 5.38         |  |  |
|     | E.                             | Discriminatory Provisions  | 5.39         |  |  |
|     | F.                             | Regulation Revisited: The Significance of Tax Relief                               | 5.41         |  |  |
| 6.  | Incidental Private Benefit     |  |              |  |  |
|     | A.                             | Introduction   | 6.01         |  |  |
|     | В.                             | Private Benefit Inherent in the Nature of a Charitable Purpose                     | 6.04         |  |  |
|     | C.                             | Private Profit   | 6.05         |  |  |
|     | D.                             | Mixed Purposes   | 6.07         |  |  |
|     | E.                             | Private Benefit as the Means of Charity  | 6.09         |  |  |
| 7.  | Religious Purposes             |  |              |  |  |
|     | A.                             | Introduction   | 7.01         |  |  |
|     | B.                             | Conceptual Public Benefit and the Definition of Religion                           | 7.02         |  |  |
|     | C.                             | Spirituality and Demonstrable Public Benefit                                       | 7.18         |  |  |
|     | D.                             | Conclusion   | 7.34         |  |  |
| 8.  | Political Purposes             |  |              |  |  |
|     | A.                             | Introduction   | 8.01         |  |  |
|     | В.                             | Development of the Prohibition   | 8.02         |  |  |
|     | C.                             | The Nature of a Political Purpose  | 8.10         |  |  |
|     | D.                             | Political Purposes Otherwise Falling Within the                                    | Q 1/i        |  |  |
|     | E                              | Categories of Charity  The Promotion of Political Ideology as a Charitable Purpose | 8.148.25 |  |  |
|     | L.                             | The Promotion of Political Ideology as a Charitable Purpose                        | 0,4)         |  |  |
| 9.  | Co                             | nclusion   | 9.01         |  |  |
| Inc | Index                          |  |              |  |  |