

Obsah

Acknowledgements	5
About the Authors	9
Introduction Jakub Jirsa	11
Role of Universities in Contemporary Society
The Common Good and the Ethic of Participation, Alexander Görlach	18
Some Reflections on Higher Education as the Origin     of Higher Stupidity Rob Riemen	25
Universities as Places that Cultivate Hope: Relationship between     Expertise, Education towards Human Maturity and Societal     Responsibility Ivana Noble	33
What Do Universities Face in the 21st century?
Neoliberalism and the Quantification of American Higher     Education Saralyn McKinnon-Crowley	54
Whither the Situationist University after Late Capitalism?, Jones Irwin	70
The University and the New Problem(s) of Counsel Cláudio Alexandre S. Carvalho	82

Autopoiesis and Universities

Diggers of Theoretical Principles and Healers of Constitutional Value Pluralism: On the Particular Function of University Legal Education

Jiří Přibán

109

Universities as Autonomously Individuated Systems

Jimmy Lewis-Martin

129

The University System in the Perspective of the System Approach and Functional Analysis

Jiří Šubrt

139

Historical Investigations: The Current Fate of the Universities

Universities under Systemic Changes, the Way of CEU from Prague through Budapest to Vienna

Peter Balazs

149

Idealism and Capitalism: Two Sides of the Beginnings of Private Higher Education in the Czech Republic (on the Example of Anglo-American College, 1990–2001)

Milada Polišenská

157

Sinology and Area Studies: Recent (Con)fusions

Olga Lomová

181

Bibliography

196