

Contents

Foreword	iii
List of Abbreviations	x
Overview: East Asia in 2003	1
1. Terrorism and Weapons of Mass Destruction, and the Response of East Asia	3
2. The Nuclear Issue of North Korea.....	6
Chapter 1: North Korea's "Second Nuclear Diplomacy"— Rising Risks and Expectations.....	9
1. The Development of "Second Nuclear Diplomacy"	12
(1) Playing with the "Possession" of Nuclear Weapons	12
(2) Assuring Regime Survival: North Korea's Political Objectives	13
2. Structural Setting of the "Second Nuclear Diplomacy"	15
(1) Strengthened Diplomatic Cards: Nuclear and Missile Development.....	15
(2) North Korea's Weaknesses: Deteriorating Military Balance, Diplomatic Encirclement, and Socioeconomic Hardships	16
3. The Nuclear Question and Alliance Relationships	20
(1) Revitalized U.S.-Japan Alliance and Strained U.S.-ROK Alliance	20
(2) Alliance Redefined, Alliance Being Redefined	22
4. Solving the Nuclear Question	23
(1) Multilateral Talks: A New Approach.....	23
(2) Prospects for Settlement.....	27
Chapter 2: Maritime Security Cooperation in Asia— Ocean Governance and Ocean-peace Keeping.....	31
1. Ocean Governance in Asia	33
(1) Sea-lanes in the Asia-Pacific Region.....	33
(2) The Conservation and Management of Marine Resources, and the Preservation of the Marine Environment	39

(3) The Importance of Ocean Governance.....	42
2. Maritime Security Cooperation and the Ocean-peace Keeping Concept.....	45
(1) The Roles of the Marine Police and the Navy.....	45
(2) Ocean-peace Keeping: The Conceptual Framework	47
(3) Ocean-peace Keeping: The Implementation	50
 Chapter 3: The Korean Peninsula—
Emerging Prospects for Change	55
1. South Korea's Policy of Self-Reliant National Defense	58
(1) History of Self-Reliant National Defense	58
(2) Background of the Reemergence of Self-Reliant National Defense	59
(3) Main Features of Self-Reliant National Defense	62
(4) A Rugged Path to Self-Reliant National Defense.....	63
2. The Policy for Peace and Prosperity: Expanding the Scope of the North Korea Policy.....	67
(1) Two Axes of South Korea's Policy toward North Korea	67
(2) Engagement Policy Stays on Track	69
(3) A New Dimension of South Korea's Policy Toward the North	73
3. Prospects for North Korea's "Economic Reform"	75
(1) Implementing Economic Reform	75
(2) Background to Reform	76
(3) Opportunities and Challenges	77
 Chapter 4: China—In Search of New Thinking	81
1. Communist Party Rule Undergoes a Process of Change	84
(1) A Generation Change at the Top	84
(2) More Rigorous Supervision of the Exercise of Power	90
(3) Toward Inner-party Democracy	92
2. Foreign Policy—In pursuit of Strategic Interests	96
(1) China's Policy Objectives Regarding the North Korean Problem	96
(2) Seeking Closer Sino-Japan Relations.....	103

3. China's Defense Modernization after the Use of Force against Iraq	109
(1) Use of Force against Iraq and Its Impact on the Modernization of the PLA	109
(2) Force Reduction and Streamlining of Military Organization	113
(3) Pursuing Personnel Modernization in the PLA	114
(4) Military Balance across the Taiwan Strait	117
 Chapter 5: Southeast Asia—From Regional Cooperation to Regional Integration	123
1. Widening Terrorist Networks	126
(1) Investigations into the Terrorist Bombing of Bali	126
(2) The JI's Expanding Reach in the Region	127
2. Democratization in Retreat?	131
(1) Indonesia: Need to Deal with Structural Problems	131
(2) The Philippines: Politicization of the Military	134
(3) Thailand: Autocratic Tendencies of the Thaksin Government	136
(4) Myanmar: Re-detention of Aung San Suu Kyi	137
3. ASEAN—Toward the Creation of a Community	139
(1) Stressing the Importance of Political and Economic Cooperation	139
(2) ASEAN Concord II	142
(3) Active Approach by China and India to ASEAN	145
4. Arms Procurement Increases	148
(1) Constraints on Arms Procurement	148
(2) Defense Modernization in ASEAN	150
 Chapter 6: Russia—From Stability to Growth	153
1. The Putin Government's Accomplishments and Challenges	156
(1) Assessing Russia's Stability and Its Political and Economic Transition	156
(2) Three National Tasks for Russia in the Years to 2010	157
(3) An Energy Strategy for Economic Recovery	159

2. Post-Iraq Cooperation with the United States and Russia's East Asian Policy	160
(1) U.S.-Russia Relations after the U.S. Use of Force against Iraq	160
(2) Putin's Diplomacy and East Asia.....	163
(3) The Development of Oil Fields in East Siberia and the Construction of Oil Pipelines.....	167
3. A New Stage of Military Reform: From Troop Cuts to Modernization.....	169
(1) Increasing Defense Expenditure and Signs of Recovery in Military Activities	169
(2) The End of the Force Reduction Process and Modernization of the Armed Forces.....	172
(3) Diversifying Threats and the Russian Military's Perception of Its Strategic Environment.....	177

Chapter 7: The United States—

American Internationalism and Unilateralism	181
1. The United States and the International Community after the Use of Force against Iraqi: Dispute over “Empire” and International Community.....	184
(1) The U.S. Perception of Security Threats, WMD and Terrorism	184
(2) American Internationalism: The Foundation of Prosperity and Its Limits.....	192
2. The Security Policy of the United States and Its Instruments	195
(1) U.S. Security and International Cooperation.....	195
(2) A New Nuclear Posture and Defense Transformation: Military Strategy of the Bush Administration.....	201
3. Alliance with East Asia: “Regional Assets” in a World Strategy.....	207
(1) Changing Security Environment and Alliances.....	207
(2) Forward Deployment within the Framework of Cooperation

with Asia-Pacific Region.....211

Chapter 8: Japan—National Emergency Legislation, Reconstruction Assistance in Iraq, and Countering the Threat of WMD.....217

1. Legislation Regarding Response to Armed Attacks, and Reconstruction Assistance in Iraq220

(1) Enactment of the Three Laws Regarding Response to Armed
Attacks.....220

(2) Expansion of the Roles of the Self-Defense Forces.....223

(3) September 11 and Japan’s Efforts.....225

(4) The Enactment of the Law Concerning Special Measures on Humanitarian and Reconstruction Assistance in Iraq.....226

(5) Japan and Future of International Security229

2. Japan’s Security Policy vis-à-vis WMD and Ballistic Missiles
.....231

(1) Arms Control, Disarmament and Nonproliferation Efforts231

(2) Retaliatory Deterrence240

(3) Missile Defense.....242

(4) An Attack on Missile Launching Sites245