

CONTENTS

List of Figures	ix
List of Maps	xi
List of Contributors	xii
Preface and Acknowledgements	xvi
A Note on Names	xix
Abbreviations	xxi

PART I
Conceptual and Theoretical Frameworks	1
1 Medieval and Renaissance Political Unions: Terminology and Research History	3
Paul Srodecki
2 Unions as a Structural Element: Preconditions, Intentions and Realisations	33
Ludwig Steindorff
3 Dynasties and Dynastic Rule between Elite Reproduction and State Building in Europe	40
Frederik Buylaert, Thalia Brero, and Erika Graham-Goering

PART II

Between Coercion and Raison d'État 53

- 4 Dynastic Unions and the Development of Stable and Extensive Christian Polities in Iberia, c. 1100–c. 1300 55
Luis García-Guijarro
- 5 The “Angevin Empire” (1150–1204): A Twelfth-Century Union 68
S. D. Church
- 6 The Emergence of the Polish-Lithuanian Union 83
Rimvydas Petrauskas
- 7 Bishop, Administrator, Guardian: Albert of Hoya and His Reign in Minden, Osnabrück and Hoya 97
Frederieke Maria Schnack

PART III

Between Aspiration and Reality 105

- 8 The Title rex Galiciae between Ambitions and Reality (c. 1100–c. 1400) 107
Márta Font
- 9 The Union between Hungary and Croatia: Myths as Reality 119
Neven Budak
- 10 The Lusatias in Personal Unions with Brandenburg and Bohemia 129
Norbert Kersken
- 11 The Foreign Policy of the Last Přemyslids: A First Attempt at Unifying Central Europe? 143
Robert Antonín
- 12 How Did the Grand Masters of the Teutonic Order Interpret Their Dependency on the Polish Crown (1466–97)? 158
Adam Szweda
- 13 An Autonomous Dependency: The Unstable Relationship between Royal Prussia and the Polish Crown, 1466–1569 172
Beata Możejko

- 14 Enfeoffment as a Tool in the Safeguarding of Power?
Dithmarschen between Holsatian and Archiepiscopal
Power Claims 185
Stefan Brenner

PART IVBetween Coincidence and Intention 195

- 15 Wenceslas II Přemyslid and Louis I of Anjou: Two Personal
Unions of the Polish Kingdom in the Fourteenth Century 197
Andrzej Marzec
- 16 Mary and Maximilian — Burgundy and Habsburg: The Rise of an Empire 210
Jan Hirschbiegel
- 17 Albert II of Habsburg's Composite Monarchy (1437–39)
and Its Significance for Central Europe 224
Julia Burkhardt
- 18 King Ladislas II Jogaila of Poland, Grand Duke Vytautas of Lithuania and the Roman Catholic and Greek Orthodox Church Union 237
Darius Baronas
- 19 The “Unions” between Sleswick, Holsatia and Denmark in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries and Their Nordic
Precursors 248
Oliver Auge

PART VBetween Dynastic Extension and Overstretching 265

- 20 The Nordic Union Wars 1451–1523 267
Jens E. Olesen
- 21 Policies for and from the Dynastic Union: The Crowns of
Castile and Aragon in the Fifteenth Century 282
Maria Bonet Donato
- 22 Corona Regni Bohemiae: The Integration of Central Europe
as Conceived by the Luxemburgs and their Successors 295
Lenka Bobková

23	The Path towards the “Danube Monarchy”? The Political Legacy of Emperor Sigismund and His “Executors” in the Fifteenth Century Přemysl Bar	311
24	In Search of a Jagiellonian Europe: Internal and External Perceptions of the Dynasty and Its Legacy in East-Central and Eastern Europe Paul Srodecki	320
	Index	341