

Table of Contents

Preface	7
1. European colonial expansion 1450-1950: An overview	9
2. 'Europe and the rest': How Europeans saw themselves and the Non-Europeans	23
3. How English became the 'global language'	37
4. 'The World in One Country': History of South Africa	51
5. The Influence of Colonial Expansion on Central Europe and Slovakia	65
6. Slaves, Jews, and the French Revolution	77
7. 'Orientalism' and 'Occidentalism': Images of the 'other'	89
8. Decolonisation, migration, multiculturalism, and European identity	101
9. Globalisation and the meaning of culture and civilisation	113
10. Different views on globalisation	125
Selected Bibliography	135
About the authors	142