

Contents

	Introduction
	Peter Goodrich and Michel Rosenfeld	I
I	Reconstructing Interpretative Communities
	1. Interpretations as Hypotheses
	Bernhard Schlink	II
	2. Antonin Scalia, Bernhard Schlink, and Lancelot Andrewes: Reading Heller
	Stanley Fish	22
	3. The Interpreter, the Analyst, and the Scientist
	Jeanne L. Schroeder	38
	4. Law against Justice and Solidarity: Rereading Derrida and Agamben at the Margins of the One and the Many
	Michel Rosenfeld	54
II	Derrida and Dissimulation
	5. Jacques Derrida Never Wrote about Law
	Pierre Legrand	105
	6. Derrida's Legal Times: Decision, Declaration, Deferral, and Event
	Bernadette Meyler	147
	7. Derrida's Shylock: The Letter and the Life of Law
	Katrin Trüstedt	168

III	The Justice of Administration
	8. A Postmodern Hetoimasia —Feigning Sovereignty during the State of Exception
	Marinos Diamantides	189
	9. Contra Iurem : Giorgio Agamben's Two Ontologies
	Laurent de Sutter	234
IV	CounterPlaces, CounterTimes
	10. Cities of Refuge, Rebel Cities, and the City to Come
	Giovanna Borradori	253
	11. A Ghost Story: Electoral Reform and Hong Kong Popular Theater
	Marco Wan	272
	12. Appearing under Erasure: Of War, Disappearance, and the Contretemps
	Allen Feldman	290
	List of Contributors	323
	Index	329