

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
-----------------------------	------------

1	Public Law and Politics: Rethinking the Debate Emilios Christodoulidis and Stephen Tierney	1
---	--	---

PART 1: ON 'THE IDEA OF PUBLIC LAW'

2	Sovereignty and the Idea of Public Law Stephen Tierney	15
3	Authority, Exploitation and the Idea of Public Law Scott Veitch	27
4	Public Law as Political Jurisprudence: Loughlin's 'Idea of Public Law' Emilios Christodoulidis	35
5	Reflections on The Idea of Public Law Martin Loughlin	47

PART 2: PUBLIC LAW AND IMPERIALISM

6	On Law, Democracy and Imperialism James Tully	69
7	Democracy, Political Reflexivity and Bounded Dialogues: Reconsidering the Monism-Pluralism Debate Hans Lindahl	103
8	The Reframing of Law's Imperial Frame: A Comment on Tully Neil Walker	117
9	Imperialism and Constitutionalism Gavin W. Anderson	129

PART 3: PUBLIC LAW AND PROCEDURALISM

10	Constitutionalism as Proceduralism: A Glance at the Terrain Frank Michelman	141
11	The Crisis of Im/purity Johan van der Walt	163
12	Between Engagement and Disengagement: Two Concepts of Civility Ioannis A. Tassopoulos	189
13	Enabling Proceduralism Victor Tadros	205
	Index	219