

CONTENTS

Preface	xi
Tables	xiii
 Chapter 1
OVERVIEW: CHARACTER MERCHANDISING AND THE PROPER SCOPE OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY	3
1.1 Introduction	3
1.2 Law of passing off	4
1.3 Unfair competition laws	6
1.4 Trade marks law	7
1.5 Copyright and design law	8
1.6 Other sources of protection of merchandising activities	8
1.7 International framework for the protection of merchandising activities	9
 Chapter 2
MERCHANDISING RIGHTS AS AN EXTENDED ACTION IN PASSING OFF	13
2.1 Introduction	13
2.2 Essential elements of the tort	14
2.3 Law of passing off in Canada	33
2.4 Inverse passing off	36
2.5 Crucial issues	42
 Chapter 3
MERCHANDISING RIGHTS AS A RIGHT OF PROPERTY IN THE MARK, NAME OR GET-UP	47
3.1 Introduction	47
3.2 Character merchandising of fictional characters	48

3.3	Property rights in non-fictional characters/real persons	68
3.4	Remedies	86
3.5	Crucial issues	87

Chapter 4

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND MONOPOLY IN SHAPES, CONTAINERS AND OTHER COMMONPLACE ARTICLES		91
4.1	Introduction	91
4.2	Cases where attempts to extend a monopoly curtailed by the courts	92
4.3	Statutory intervention to prevent monopoly rights	94
4.4	Monopoly rights in commonplace articles	97
4.5	When get-up can be functional	112
4.6	Crucial issues	116

Chapter 5

USE OF WELL-KNOWN IMAGES AND FEATURES IN ADVERTISING, COMPARATIVE ADVERTISING AND UNFAIR COMPETITION		121
5.1	Introduction	121
5.2	Sufficient misrepresentation to found an action for passing off	122
5.3	Passing off and unfair competition	128
5.4	Use of well-known images in advertising	139
5.5	Comparative advertising	154
5.6	Crucial issues	165

Chapter 6

USE OF REGISTERED TRADE MARKS AND SERVICE MARKS TO PROTECT MERCHANDISING RIGHTS		169
6.1	Introduction	169
6.2	Definition of a trade mark under the Trade Marks Act 1994	169
6.3	Descriptive marks	181
6.4	Well-known marks	187
6.5	Licensing and assignment of trade marks	188
6.6	Infringement of trade marks	193
6.7	The Euro trade mark	199
6.8	Australian law	202
6.9	Canadian law	203
6.10	American law	204
6.11	Other provisions in the Trade Marks Act 1994 facilitating merchandising	205
6.12	Crucial issues	206

Chapter 7

USE OF COPYRIGHT AND DESIGN LAW TO PROTECT MERCHANDISING RIGHTS		209
7.1	Introduction	209

7.2	Protection for rights in character and associated merchandising activities by the use of copyright laws	210
7.3	Protection of merchandising activities through design law	231
7.4	Crucial issues	244

Chapter 8

OTHER SOURCES OF PROTECTION OF MERCHANDISING RIGHTS		249
8.1	Introduction	249
8.2	Defamation	249
8.3	Injurious or malicious falsehood	252
8.4	Privacy laws	257
8.5	Law of confidence	273
8.6	Criminal and regulatory protection	277
8.7	Crucial issues	279

Chapter 9

CIVIL REMEDIES FOR THE PROTECTION OF MERCHANDISING RIGHTS		283
9.1	Introduction	283
9.2	Anton Piller orders	283
9.3	Mareva injunction	289
9.4	Interlocutory injunction	292
9.5	Damages	295
9.6	Account of profits	298
9.7	Other ancillary orders	301
9.8	Crucial issues	304

Chapter 10

INTERNATIONAL FRAMEWORK FOR THE PROTECTION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY/MERCHANDISING RIGHTS		307
10.1	Introduction	307
10.2	General provisions and basic principles of TRIPS	308
10.3	GATT, TRIPS and character merchandising – minimum standards	310
10.4	Implementation of TRIPS by other countries	321

Appendix 1

COPYRIGHT, DESIGNS AND PATENTS ACT 1988 (C. 48), PARTS I AND II	323
---	-----

Appendix 2

COPYRIGHT, DESIGNS AND PATENTS ACT 1988 (C. 48), PART III	359
---	-----

Appendix 3

REGISTERED DESIGNS ACT 1949 (C. 88)	369
-------------------------------------	-----

Appendix 4
TRADE MARKS ACT 1994 (C. 26)	381
Index	401