

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface III
Contents V
Abbreviations XIII

INTRODUCTION 1

I AUDIOVISUAL AUTHORS AND THE CHANGING AUDIOVISUAL ENVIRONMENT: AN OVERVIEW OF THE HISTORICAL CONSTRUCTION OF AUTHORSHIP IN CINEMATOGRAPHIC AND AUDIOVISUAL WORKS 7

1 General 7

2 Film making as the interplay of technological, economic and artistic factors 10
2.1 Photography 10
2.2 The cinema 10
 The early days of the cinema 10
 The legitimation of the cinema as an independent art form . . . 15
2.3 Television 17
2.4 Digital media 20
 2.4.1 General 20
 2.4.2 The deromantization of the author and the desacralization of the notion of the protected work 23

II THE WORK OF ART IN THE AGE OF NUMERICAL REPRODUCTION 31

1 General 31

2 Audiovisual works and author's rights 37
2.1 A protected work 37
 2.1.1 General observations 38
 2.1.2 Originality in the author's rights tradition 43
 Germany 43
 France 46
 Switzerland 51

	The Nordic countries	52
2.1.3	Originality in the common law-based copyright tradition	54
	United Kingdom	55
	United States	56
2.1.4	Requirements of originality at the transnational level . . .	61
2.1.5	Some concluding remarks on defining originality	63
2.2	Defining audiovisual works in terms of author's rights	65
2.2.1	Audiovisual works in the international legal framework .	65
2.2.2	Defining audiovisual works in the European Union	68
2.2.3	Defining cinematographic and audiovisual works as protected works on the national level	69
2.2.3.1	The Nordic countries and certain other civil law countries	69
	Traditional audiovisual works	71
	New audiovisual work genres	75
2.2.3.2	Defining audiovisual works in the United States	82
2.2.4	The impact of new technologies on the definition of audiovisual works: multimedia productions	86
	Some general remarks with respect to multimedia technologies	86
	Defining various forms of protected multimedia applications in terms of author's rights	87
2.2.5	Some concluding remarks with regard to defining audiovisual works	90
III	OWNERSHIP OF RIGHTS IN AUDIOVISUAL WORKS IN TRADITIONAL FORMS OF AUDIOVISUAL COMMUNICATION . .	93
1	Introductory remarks	93
2	Regulating ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the Berne Convention	94
2.1	The Berne Convention and ownership of rights in cinematographic works	95
2.2	Regulation of audiovisual rights in the Berne Convention	98
2.2.1	Regulation of rights of authors of pre-existing works . . .	99
2.2.2	Regulation of ownership of rights in audiovisual works	100
2.3	Regulation of moral rights in the Berne Convention	108
3	The Rome Convention and the protection of rights in audiovisual works	113

Table of contents

4	Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights and Ownership of Rights in Audiovisual Works	114
5	Regulating ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the European Union	116
5.1	Harmonization of authorship in audiovisual works	116
5.2	Protecting related rights in the European Union	120
5.2.1	Protecting the rights of performers in audiovisual productions	120
5.2.2	Phonogram producers	122
5.2.3	Protecting the rights of producers of audiovisual works	123
5.3	Some concluding remarks	126
5.3.1	The harmonization of authorship in audiovisual works	126
5.3.2	Harmonization of the rights of performers in audiovisual productions	127
5.3.3	The legal status of audiovisual producers	127
6	Authorship in audiovisual works	129
6.1	Authorship in audiovisual works in certain European countries	130
6.1.1	Determination of authorship in audiovisual works in Germany	131
	Rights of authors of pre-existing works	132
	Rights of film authors	133
6.1.2	Determination of authorship in audiovisual works in France	135
6.1.3	Determination of authorship in audiovisual works in Belgium	138
6.2	Authorship in audiovisual works in the Nordic countries	140
6.2.1	General	140
6.2.2	Authors of pre-existing works	142
6.2.3	Authors of cinematographic and audiovisual works	143
	The author of a cinematographic work: drawing the line between creative artistic work and technical skill	143
	Professionals having author's rights in cinematographic works in the Nordic countries	145
6.2.4	The impact of collective administration of audiovisual rights on the determination of ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the Nordic countries	154
	General background	155
	Professional categories entitled to remunerations for certain secondary uses of audiovisual works and programs in the practice of collective administration of rights	158

6.3	Some concluding remarks with respect to determining authorship in audiovisual works	163
7	Protection of rights related to author's rights in audiovisual production	166
7.1	Rights of performing artists	166
7.1.1	Protection of the rights of performers and interpreting artists in certain civil law-based European countries . .	166
7.1.1.1	Germany	166
7.1.1.2	France	168
7.1.1.3	Belgium	170
7.1.2	Rights of performing and interpreting artists in the Nordic countries	171
7.1.2.1	Sweden	171
7.1.2.2	Denmark	175
7.1.2.3	Finland and Norway	177
7.1.2.4	Iceland	179
7.2	Related rights protection of producers of audiovisual works and other audiovisual fixations	180
7.2.1	Protection of the related rights of audiovisual producers in certain European civil law-based countries	181
7.2.1.1	Germany	181
7.2.1.2	France	183
7.2.1.3	Belgium	185
7.2.2	Protection of the rights of audiovisual producers in the Nordic countries	187
7.2.2.1	Sweden	187
7.2.2.2	Denmark	189
7.2.2.3	Finland	191
7.2.2.4	Norway	194
7.2.2.5	Iceland	195
7.2.3	Some concluding remarks with respect to related rights protection of producers of audiovisual fixations	196
7.3	Rights of phonogram producers in the Nordic countries	197
8	Ownership of economic rights in audiovisual works	200
8.1	Regulating the assignment of audiovisual rights in certain civil law-based countries	201
8.1.1	Germany	201
8.1.1.1	Ownership of author's exclusive rights	201

Table of contents

	Assignment of audiovisual adaptation rights in pre-existing works	201
	Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer	203
	Other limitations of rights of authors in favor of the producer	206
8.1.1.2	Ownership of performers' related rights	208
8.1.2	France	209
8.1.2.1	Ownership of author's exclusive rights	209
	Assignment of audiovisual adaptation rights in pre-existing works	209
	Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer	210
8.1.2.2	Ownership of performers' related rights	216
8.1.3	Belgium	218
8.1.3.1	Ownership of author's exclusive rights	218
	Assignment of audiovisual adaptation rights in pre-existing works	218
	Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer	219
8.1.3.2	Ownership of performers' related rights	221
8.1.4	Regulating assignment of audiovisual rights in some other countries	221
8.2	Regulating the assignment of audiovisual rights in the Nordic countries	222
8.2.1	Sweden	223
8.2.1.1	Ownership of author's exclusive rights	223
	Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer	223
	Reversion of rights in literary and musical works in case of non-exercise	226
8.2.1.2	Ownership of performers' related rights	227
8.2.2	Finland	229
8.2.2.1	Ownership of author's exclusive rights	229
	Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer	229
	Reversion of rights in case of non-exercise	235
8.2.2.2	Ownership of performers' related rights	235
8.2.3	Denmark	236
8.2.3.1	Ownership of authors' exclusive rights	236

	Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer	236
	Reversion of rights in case of non-exercise . .	241
8.2.3.2	Ownership of performers' related rights	243
8.2.4	Norway	244
8.2.4.1	Ownership of author's exclusive rights	244
	Assignment of audiovisual rights to the producer	244
	Reversion of rights in case of non-exercise . .	246
8.2.4.2	Ownership of performers' related rights	247
8.2.5	Iceland	248
8.2.5.1	Ownership of authors' exclusive rights	248
8.2.5.2	Ownership of performers' related rights	248
8.2.6	Some concluding remarks with respect to regulating the assignment of audiovisual exploitation rights in the civil law tradition of author's rights	249
8.2.6.1	Continental Europe	249
8.2.6.2	Sweden	250
8.2.6.3	Denmark	251
8.2.6.4	Finland	253
8.2.6.5	Norway	253
9	Moral rights and ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the civil law countries	254
9.1	General	254
9.1.1	Protecting the personal prerogatives of authors through moral rights	255
	Right of disclosure	256
	Right of attribution	261
	Right to preserve the integrity of the work	262
9.1.2	Some observations with regard to performers' moral rights protection with respect to their contributions in audiovisual works	265
9.1.3	The inalienability of moral rights	266
9.2	Specific regulation relating to the exercise of moral rights in audiovisual works	271
9.2.1	France	271
9.2.2	Germany	275
9.3	Right to preserve the integrity of the work and authorship in an audiovisual work: the Huston case	276
9.4	Some concluding remarks with regard to ownership of moral rights in audiovisual works	282

Table of contents

10	Ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the common law tradition	286
10.1	Ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the United Kingdom	287
10.1.1	Regulating authorship in audiovisual works	287
10.1.2	Moral rights protection of authors of audiovisual works under the C.D.P.A.	290
	Right of attribution	291
	Right to object to derogatory treatment	292
	Other provisions relating to the moral rights protection under the C.D.P.A.	294
10.1.3	Rights in performances in connection with films	295
	Rights of performers	296
	Rights of persons having recording rights	296
10.1.4	Some concluding remarks	298
10.2	Ownership of rights in audiovisual works in the United States	299
10.2.1	Authorship in audiovisual works	299
10.2.2	Protecting moral rights under the U.S. law and in contractual practice	306
10.2.3	Some concluding remarks	310
IV	THE IMPACT OF DIGITIZATION ON OWNERSHIP OF RIGHTS IN AUDIOVISUAL WORKS	313
1	Ownership of rights in works created in multimedia environment	313
1.1	Multimedia applications as audiovisual works	314
1.2	Multimedia applications as literary or artistic works	319
1.2.1	Multimedia applications as literary works	319
1.2.2	Multimedia applications as artistic works	320
1.3	Multimedia applications as collections of works or as composite works	321
1.4	Multimedia applications as collective works	325
1.5	Multimedia applications as databases	327
1.6	The impact of Directive 96/9/EC on the legal protection of databases on the definition of rightowners in audiovisual works	328
1.6.1	General	328
1.6.2	Directive 96/9/EC on the legal protection of databases and rightownership in audiovisual works	329
1.6.2.1	Databases protected by copyright	329

1.6.2.2	The sui generis protection for the makers of the database	334
2	Some concluding remarks on the impact of digitization on ownership of rights in audiovisual works	335
V	CONCLUDING REMARKS: ownership of rights in audiovisual works	337
1	Original ownership of rights in audiovisual works	338
1.1	General	338
1.2	Ownership of rights in audiovisual works and regulating the exercise of audiovisual rights with regard to the completed audiovisual work	339
1.2.1	Ownership of economic rights in the civil law countries	339
1.2.2	Regulating the exercise of authors' moral rights	342
1.2.3	Some comparative remarks with regard to the common law tradition of copyright	344
2	Ownership of related rights in audiovisual productions	345
2.1	Performers	345
2.1.1	Economic rights of performers	345
2.1.2	Regulating the exercise of performers' moral rights	347
2.2	Producers of audiovisual works and other audiovisual fixations	348
2.2.1	General framework of producers related rights protection in the Nordic countries	348
2.2.2	Some concluding observations with regard to producers' related rights protection	349
3	Finally	350
	Bibliography	355
	Legislative documents	365
	Table of cases	371
	Index	375