

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. AUDIOVISUAL LANDSCAPE

Karol JAKUBOWICZ (Poland): The Audiovisual Landscape of Central and Eastern Europe: Change All Around.....	13
Wolfgang KLEINWACHTER (Germany): New Legal Frameworks for Broadcasting in Central and Eastern Europe	21
Alexandru MARIN (Romania): An Overview of the Film Scene in Central and Eastern Europe	31
Andras SZEKFU (Hungary): Hungarian Audiovisual Media: From Boom to Bust to ...?	40
Tone FRELIH (Slovenia): The Audiovisual Industry in Slovenia	49
Sergei EROFEEV (Russia): Television in Russia: A Time of Transition.....	53
Miron CZERNENKO (Russia): Russian Film Production: A Riddle Wrapped in an Enigma.....	62
Karol JAKUBOWICZ (Poland): Internationalization of Television in Central and Eastern Europe	65
Janet WASKO (U.S.): Hollywood Goes East	75
Experiences of East-West Film Co-productions. An Interview with Krzysztof ZANUSSI	89
Experiences of East-West Film Co-productions. An Interview with Lew RYWIN	93
Vladimir KROUPA (Czech Republic): Prospects for Collaboration of European Broadcasters Within the EBU	96
Richard W. DILL (Germany, ARD + EBU): East-West Integration - the EBU Role	102

II. COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

Preface	109
---------------	-----

Chapter I: Copyright and the protection of works in the countries of Central and Eastern Europe	111
A. Introduction	111
B. The work and its author: the approach of different law texts	112
C. Prerogatives derived from copyright by its owner	114
1) Prerogatives of moral right	114
2) Prerogatives of an economic nature	116
D. Duration of copyright protection	118
E. The public domain	119
1) The special case of Hungary	120
2) Developments in the Czech Republic and Slovakia	120
3) Situation in Russia	120
4) Article 40 of the Polish law	121
F. Regulation of certain contractual practices in the context of the exploitation of works	121
1) Publishing and public performance contracts	121
2) Contracts focusing on audio-visual works	123

Chapter II: The legal position of the performing artist in Central and Eastern Europe	126
A. Introduction	126
B. Territories concerned	127
C. A definition of the performing artist?	127
D. The performing artists protected	128
E. Specific prerogatives of the performing artist	129
1) Prerogatives of moral right	129
2) Prerogatives of an economic nature	130
F. Duration of protection of the performing artist's neighbouring right	132
G. Legal data on agreements for exploiting performances	133

Chapter III: The neighbouring right of the phonogram producer and broadcasting organizations	135
A. International conventions	135
B. Protection of phonogram producers	135
C. Neighbouring rights of radio broadcasting and television organizations	138

Chapter IV: New prerogatives for rightholders: distribution by cable and satellite, rental	140
A. New technologies - new practices	140
B. The problem of distribution by cable and satellite	141
C. Rental	144

Chapter V: Remuneration from fees for private copying	146
A. The concept	146
B. The principles of collecting a "private copying" fee in the countries of Central and Eastern Europe	146
1) Hungarian, Czech and Slovak legislation	146
2) The "private copying" fee in the most recent Central and Eastern European laws	147
C. Beneficiaries of remuneration resulting from the compensatory levy on private copying	148
Chapter VI: The problem of piracy: civil and penal sanctions	151
A. Theory and piracy	151
B. Civil sanctions	151
C. Penal sanctions	153
D. Conclusion	155
Chapter VII: Collective licensing of rights and remuneration	156
A. Collective licensing	156
B. Legal provisions concerning collective licensing societies	157
C. Addresses of collective licensing societies in the audiovisual field.....	159
1) Societies of authors	159
2) Collecting societies for neighbouring rights	160
Conclusions	161
TABLES	166
USEFUL ADDRESSES	181