

Contents

Contributors	vii
Introduction: the many faces of the public domain	xi
Hector MacQueen and Charlotte Waelde
1. In search of the public domain during the prehistory of copyright law	1
F. Willem Grosheide
2. Copyright's public domain	21
Ronan Deazley
3. The public domain: right or liberty?	35
John Cahir
4. The public domain and international intellectual property law treaties	53
Antony Taubman
5. The public interest in the public domain	86
Gillian Davies
6. Altering the contours of the public domain	98
Fiona Macmillan
7. Creativity, innovation and intellectual property: a new approach for the 21st century	118
John Howkins
8. The public domain and the librarian	127
Toby Bainton
9. The public domain and the creative author	132
Bill Thompson
10. The public domain and the economist	145
Manfredi M.A. La Manna
11. The public domain and public sector information	158
Richard Susskind OBE
12. Audiences in tradition: traditional knowledge and the public domain	174
Johanna Gibson

13.	Scientific research agendas: controlled and shaped by the scope of patentability	189
	Helen Wallace and Sue Mayer
14.	The public domain: ideology vs. interest	200
	Ann Bruce
15.	A rights-free world – is it workable, and what is the point?	211
	Graham Dutfield
16.	The priorities, the values, the public	226
	Charlotte Waelde
	Index	247