

Contents

31	Military threats to security from states	154
32	The globalization of ill health	160
33	The development of global security	170
34	The state securitization of non-state violence	171
35	The human securitization of violence	173
36	Global responses to political non-state violence	176
37	Key points	177
38	Notes	177
39	Recommended reading	177
40	Useful web links	177
41
42	4 Economic threats to security	180
43	Poverty and food security	181
44	Natural disasters	187
45	The rise of human vulnerability to nature	188
46	Preparing for the unexpected – the global politics of natural disasters	190
47	Achieving global economic security	191
48	Key points	ix
49	Notes	x
50	Recommended reading	xi
51	Useful web links	xiii
52
53	LIST OF FIGURES AND BOXES
54	LIST OF TABLES
55	ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
56	ACRONYMS
57
58	1 Security and securitization	1
59	Defining security	2
60	The international political agenda	12
61	The securitization of issues	14
62	Key points	19
63	Notes	19
64	Recommended reading	19
65	Useful web links	20
66
67	2 Military threats to security from states	21
68	Prelude to the present order	22
69	A new world order?	28
70	New world disorder?	40
71	An end to 'high politics'?	50
72	Key points	58
73	Notes	59
74	Recommended reading	59
75	Useful web links	59

3 Military threats to security from non-state actors	61
One man's terrorist . . .	62
Types of political non-state military groups	63
The rise and rise of political non-state violence	68
State responses to political non-state violence	72
Global responses to political non-state violence	79
Key points	81
Notes	81
Recommended reading	82
Useful web links	82
4 Economic threats to security	83
Poverty and food security	84
Depression	93
Economic statecraft	95
Achieving global economic security	99
Key points	102
Notes	102
Recommended reading	102
Useful web links	103
5 Social identity as a threat to security	105
Societal security	106
Forms of violent discrimination	107
Securing the individual – the global politics of human rights	117
Key points	131
Notes	131
Recommended reading	132
Useful web links	132
6 Environmental threats to security	133
The rise of environmental issues in global politics	134
The environment and military security	142
Environmental issues themselves as threats to security	145
Towards ecological security?	150
Key points	151
Note	152
Recommended reading	152
Useful web links	152

7 Health threats to security	153
The globalization of ill health	154
The development of global health policy	160
The state securitization of health	170
The human securitization of health	171
The globalization of health security	173
Key points	176
Notes	177
Recommended reading	177
Useful web links	177
8 Natural threats to security	179
Natural disasters	180
The rise of human vulnerability to nature	187
Preparing for the unexpected – the global politics of natural disaster management	190
Key points	196
Notes	196
Recommended reading	196
Useful web links	197
9 Accidental threats to security	199
Accidents will happen? The nature and form of man-made accidents	200
The collateral damage of industrialization? The rise of accidental threats	204
Sub-global international accident and risk management policy	207
Securing those at risk in the world – global policy on accidents	208
Key points	213
Notes	213
Recommended reading	214
Useful web links	214
10 Criminal threats to security	215
Global crime in historical context	217
Webs of deceit – the rise in prominence of transnational crime	219
Global policemen? The rise of international political action on crime	225

Key points	229
Recommended reading	230
Useful web links	230
11 Towards global security	231
Thinking global: integration theories and global politics	232
Acting global: global solutions to global problems	234
Key points	239
Notes	240
Recommended reading	240
Useful web links	240
8 Natural threats to security	241
Natural disasters	241
The rise of human vulnerability to nature	245
Preparing for the unexpected – the global politics of natural disasters	260
disaster management	102
Key points	102
Notes	102
Recommended reading	102
Useful web links	103
9 Accidental threats to security	105
Accidents will happen? The nature and form of man-made accidents	107
The collateral damage of industrialization: The rise of accidental accidents	117
The collateral damage of industrialization: The rise of accidental accidents	131
Key points	131
Notes	131
Recommended reading	132
Useful web links	132
Key points	132
Notes	133
Recommended reading	134
Useful web links	134
10 Criminal threats to security	145
Global crime in historical context	151
Waves of deceit – the rise in prominence of transnational crime	152
Global policemen? The rise of international police co-operation	152
crime	152
GLOSSARY	241
BIBLIOGRAPHY	245
INDEX	260
Key points	190
Notes	196
Recommended reading	196
Useful web links	197