

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-------|
| PREFACE | vii |
| TABLE OF CASES | xxi |
| TABLE OF STATUTES | lxi |
| TABLE OF STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS, STATUTORY GUIDANCE, ETC | lxxix |
| TABLE OF EC AND INTERNATIONAL LEGISLATION | lxxxv |
| TABLE OF FOREIGN ENACTMENTS | xcii |
| TABLE OF ABBREVIATIONS | xciii |
| PART I BACKGROUND AND SOURCES OF CHILDREN LAW | |
| CHAPTER 1 CHILDREN AND THE LAW: A DEMOGRAPHIC AND HISTORICAL SKETCH | 3 |
| Introduction | 3 |
| Demographic factors: children and families | 4 |
| The child as a legal person | 7 |
| Legal power and social reality | 8 |
| The father's exclusive entitlement to parental authority | 8 |
| The family and outsiders | 12 |
| Religion: the first recognition of children's rights | 13 |
| The role of the Court of Chancery: wardship | 13 |
| Principles on which the court would exercise its discretion: the paramountcy of the child's welfare | 14 |
| Child still not entitled to access to courts | 15 |
| The age of majority | 16 |
| The role of the State | 16 |
| The Poor Law | 16 |
| Boarding-out: assumption of parental rights | 17 |
| Local authorities' responsibilities for child care | 17 |
| Adoption | 20 |
| Child protection legislation | 22 |
| Special protection for children on parental divorce | 24 |
| Background | 24 |
| Legislation | 25 |
| CHAPTER 2 FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES: THE CHILDREN ACT 1989, THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD, AND HUMAN RIGHTS | 29 |
| I THE CHILDREN ACT 1989 | 30 |
| The scope of the legislation | 30 |
| General | 30 |
| Children issues in adult litigation: beyond the Children Act 1989 | 31 |
| Impact of the Children Act 1989 on other legislation | 33 |
| Other children issues | 33 |

| | |
|--|-----------|
| The history of the legislation | 34 |
| The public law review | 34 |
| The private law review | 36 |
| Central principles | 37 |
| The welfare principle | 37 |
| Can paramountcy survive the Human Rights Act 1998? | 38 |
| The no order principle | 45 |
| Delay is prejudicial | 47 |
| Philosophies and ideologies | 49 |
| The State and the family | 52 |
| Agents of the State: the courts and local authorities | 53 |
| Children and adult society | 57 |
| Fathers and mothers | 58 |
| The statutory scheme | 60 |
| The function of parental responsibility | 61 |
| The effect of court orders on parental responsibility | 62 |
| Jurisdictional arrangements | 64 |
| II THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD | 66 |
| The legal effect of the UN Convention | 67 |
| General aims and general obligations | 70 |
| Specific rights | 72 |
| Evaluation of the UNCRC | 77 |
| III CHILDREN AND HUMAN RIGHTS: THE EUROPEAN CONVENTION FOR THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS, AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACT 1998 | 78 |
| The Human Rights Act 1998 | 79 |
| The ECHR: key Articles for children and families | 80 |
| The potential of the ECHR for children | 82 |
| CHAPTER 3 THE CENTRAL ISSUES | 85 |
| Childhood and parenthood | 85 |
| What is a child? | 86 |
| The beginning of childhood | 86 |
| The end of childhood | 87 |
| What is a parent? | 88 |
| Who is the mother? | 91 |
| Who is the father? | 92 |
| The concept of children's rights | 97 |
| 'Welfare' versus 'rights' | 98 |
| Children's rights in the USA | 99 |
| Development of children's rights in England | 99 |
| The significance of language and terminology | 101 |
| Some theories of children's rights | 101 |
| MacCormick's test case | 102 |
| The emergence of children's rights according to Eekelaar | 104 |
| Freeman's liberal paternalism | 107 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Common ground between the theories | 111 |
| Onora O'Neill: Children's rights or adults' duties? | 112 |
| Do children have duties? | 113 |
| Parents: rights, responsibilities and discretions | 114 |
| The legal incidents of parenthood | 115 |
| The nature and extent of parental responsibility | 119 |
| Parent-child conflicts | 122 |
| Parents and children: balancing rights and interests | 123 |

PART II CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

| | |
|--|-----|
| CHAPTER 4 THE MARRIED FAMILY AND DIVORCE | 129 |
| Introduction | 129 |
| Married parents | 129 |
| Proof of parentage | 129 |
| Parental responsibility | 130 |
| Responsibility is automatic | 131 |
| Parenthood is for life | 132 |
| Parental responsibility cannot be transferred | 132 |
| Sharing parental responsibility in marriage | 133 |
| Potential for sharing | 133 |
| What is involved in sharing? | 133 |
| Disputes over children during marriage | 137 |
| The position of third parties | 137 |
| Preventative court orders | 137 |
| Divorce and children | 138 |
| A problem? | 138 |
| The legal background | 141 |
| The effect of the Children Act 1989 | 141 |
| The Family Law Act 1996: the disappearing reform | 143 |
| Private orders and the exercise of the court's discretion | 150 |
| The range of orders | 151 |
| Applying the welfare principle: the court's discretion | 173 |
| Children after divorce: unresolved issues | 180 |
| CHAPTER 5 THE UNMARRIED FAMILY | 183 |
| Introduction | 183 |
| Illegitimacy: before 1987 | 185 |
| The position after 1987 | 186 |
| Establishing paternity and family life | 188 |
| The automatic position | 188 |
| Proving paternity | 189 |
| Human rights: when does family life begin? | 197 |
| Parental responsibility in the unmarried family | 201 |
| The background | 201 |
| Acquiring parental responsibility | 205 |
| Section 8 orders: the court's discretion | 210 |
| Public policy, unmarried parenthood and human rights: some issues for the future | 215 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| CHAPTER 6 THE SOCIAL FAMILY | 219 |
| Introduction | 219 |
| Parental responsibility | 219 |
| The general scheme | 220 |
| The private law | 220 |
| The public law | 223 |
| The nature and effect of orders obtained by social parents: parental responsibility, not parenthood | 224 |
| Guardians | 225 |
| The nature of guardianship | 225 |
| The appointment of guardians | 227 |
| The legal effects of guardianship | 228 |
| Revocation, disclaimer and termination of guardianship | 231 |
| Step-parents | 232 |
| The nature of step-parenthood | 232 |
| Acquiring a status | 233 |
| Foster-parents | 237 |
| The nature of foster-parenthood | 237 |
| Relatives | 242 |
| Definitions and problems | 242 |
| Social parents: new alternatives for permanence | 247 |
| The background | 247 |
| The extension of residence orders | 249 |
| Special guardianship | 250 |
| Surrogacy arrangements | 254 |
| The nature of surrogacy | 254 |
| The effectiveness of surrogacy arrangements | 256 |
| Some policy considerations | 258 |
| CHAPTER 7 ADOPTION | 261 |
| Introduction | 261 |
| The nature of adoption | 263 |
| Purposes of adoption | 263 |
| Central principles of the new adoption law | 266 |
| The welfare principle | 266 |
| The statutory checklist of factors | 267 |
| Culture and religion | 269 |
| The no delay principle | 269 |
| The no order principle | 270 |
| The range of powers | 270 |
| Legal control of adoption services and placements | 271 |
| Prohibition of private adoption | 271 |
| The adoption service and adoption agencies | 272 |
| Qualifications for adoption | 273 |
| Which children may be adopted? | 274 |
| Who may adopt? | 275 |
| The probationary periods | 279 |
| The new placement regime | 281 |
| The trouble with freeing for adoption | 281 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| The two routes for placement | 282 |
| The legal effects of placement | 283 |
| Consent to adoption | 285 |
| The essential conditions | 285 |
| Whose consent is required? | 287 |
| Dispensing with consent | 291 |
| The legal effects of adoption | 296 |
| General effects | 296 |
| Open adoption? | 298 |
| The Registers | 302 |
| Disclosure of information relating to a person's adoption | 305 |
| The place of adoption in child protection and alternatives for permanence | 306 |
| CHAPTER 8 CHILDREN AND MEDICAL DECISIONS | 309 |
| Introduction | 309 |
| Who decides? | 310 |
| On what criteria? | 310 |
| Who is a child? | 313 |
| General principles | 313 |
| The parental consent principle | 313 |
| Exceptions to the parental consent requirement | 318 |
| The problem of infants and young children: the selective treatment of the newborn | 331 |
| The baby Alexandra case | 332 |
| The trial of Dr Arthur | 333 |
| The case of the hydrocephalic baby: Re C | 335 |
| The case of the premature baby: Re J | 336 |
| The resurgence of parental rights: Re T | 338 |
| The dilemma of the conjoined twins: Re A | 340 |
| Quality of life over sanctity of life | 343 |
| Children's rights to equality of treatment | 344 |
| The problem of older children: medical issues arising from adolescent sexuality | 345 |
| The Gillick case | 346 |
| Re R | 349 |
| Re W | 352 |
| Cumulative effect of the leading cases | 354 |
| Reconciling adolescent capacity, parental responsibility and medical paternalism | 356 |
| CHAPTER 9 CHILDREN, MONEY AND PROPERTY | 361 |
| Introduction | 361 |
| Children and property | 361 |
| Children's capacity to own property | 361 |
| Management of children's property | 362 |
| Inheritance rights | 362 |
| Failure to provide for children | 363 |
| Court's power to order that reasonable financial provision be made | 363 |
| Exercise of the court's discretion | 364 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Evolution of the obligations to provide financial support for children | 368 |
| The impact of the Child Support Act 1991 on the private law governing financial provision for children | 369 |
| Welfare benefits and their impact | 370 |
| The Finer Report: welfare benefits as the third system of family law | 370 |
| Changing approaches to the State's role | 370 |
| Means-tested benefits for the poor: supplementary benefit and family income supplement | 371 |
| Reducing the burden of welfare benefit provision | 371 |
| Benefits for school-leavers | 373 |
| Amount of income support | 374 |
| The means test | 374 |
| The move to tax credits | 375 |
| Maximising welfare benefits following family breakdown: welfare benefit planning | 376 |
| The welfare benefit 'clean break' | 377 |
| The reaction to welfare benefit planning | 377 |
| Financial support for children under the Child Support Act 1991 | 378 |
| General principles of the child support legislation | 381 |
| Administration of child support | 384 |
| Liability to maintain: non-resident parents | 384 |
| Who is a parent? | 385 |
| Disputes about parentage | 385 |
| The obligation | 386 |
| The maintenance calculation | 386 |
| The new rates | 387 |
| Variations | 389 |
| Revisions | 390 |
| Assessment will be made only on application | 390 |
| Agreements cannot oust Agency's jurisdiction | 391 |
| Information | 391 |
| Collection and enforcement | 392 |
| The residual role of the court in relation to financial provision for children | 393 |
| The court's powers in respect of lump sums and property adjustment | 395 |
| The court's powers to make financial orders for the benefit of children | 395 |
| Powers exercisable in matrimonial proceedings | 395 |
| Financial orders for children under the Children Act 1989 | 401 |
| Financial responsibility for children: some concluding policy considerations | 406 |

PART III CHILDREN AND LOCAL AUTHORITIES

| | |
|---|-----|
| CHAPTER 10 LOCAL AUTHORITY SUPPORT FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES | 413 |
| Introduction | 413 |
| Relationship between voluntary and compulsory action | 415 |
| Children in need: eligibility for services | 416 |
| Central and local government: division of functions | 418 |
| Services for children and families | 420 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Reformulation of the general duty | 421 |
| Children in need | 423 |
| Available services | 425 |
| Specific powers and duties | 426 |
| The provision of accommodation | 429 |
| The duty to accommodate | 430 |
| The relevance of objections | 431 |
| The child's point of view | 434 |
| The use of secure accommodation | 436 |
| Powers and duties of local authorities to children looked after by them | 438 |
| Agreements | 439 |
| Statutory duties | 440 |
| Young persons qualifying for advice and assistance | 445 |
| Legal regulation of substitute care arrangements | 446 |
| The background | 446 |
| The Care Standards Act 2000 | 446 |
| Children's homes | 447 |
| Fostering arrangements | 449 |
| Child-minding and day-care for young children | 452 |
| Questioning local authorities' decisions | 454 |
| Reviews and representations | 455 |
| Other potential remedies | 457 |
| Actions under the Human Rights Act 1998 | 464 |
| Conclusion | 466 |
| CHAPTER 11 CARE AND SUPERVISION | 469 |
| Introduction | 469 |
| Child protection and human rights | 470 |
| Emphasis on co-operation | 473 |
| Procedure before commencement of any action | 474 |
| The child protection conference | 474 |
| Attendance of family members at child protection conferences | 475 |
| The legal basis for compulsory orders | 476 |
| Who may apply for an order? | 477 |
| Which children? | 479 |
| Which proceedings and which orders? | 480 |
| On what ground? | 483 |
| Care plans | 505 |
| Care orders | 510 |
| The legal effects of a care order | 510 |
| Contact with children in care | 513 |
| Supervision | 518 |
| When may a supervision order be made? | 519 |
| What is the effect of a supervision order? | 521 |
| Procedural features and other orders | 523 |
| Procedural changes | 524 |
| Interim orders | 525 |
| Discharge of care orders and discharge or variation of supervision orders | 530 |
| Wardship and the inherent jurisdiction | 532 |
| Wardship and local authorities | 533 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| The inherent jurisdiction and local authorities | 534 |
| CHAPTER 12 INVESTIGATION AND SHORT-TERM PROTECTION | 539 |
| Introduction | 539 |
| Historical background to the reforms | 539 |
| The emergency protection order | 540 |
| The need for a 'half-way house': the child assessment order | 540 |
| Other reforms under the Children Act | 541 |
| Investigation | 542 |
| Sources of initial information | 542 |
| Local authority's investigations | 542 |
| Possible courses of action following enquiries | 544 |
| The value of co-operation | 545 |
| Child assessment orders | 545 |
| Who may apply and on what grounds? | 545 |
| What are the effects of the CAO? | 547 |
| How long does the order last? | 548 |
| Emergency protection orders | 549 |
| The human rights context | 549 |
| Who may apply and on what grounds? | 552 |
| What are the effects of the EPO? | 555 |
| How long does the EPO last? | 558 |
| Can the alleged abuser be removed instead? | 559 |
| Police protection | 569 |
| Direct action | 569 |
| Obligations which the police must fulfil | 569 |
| No parental responsibility | 570 |
| Abduction of children and refuges for children at risk | 570 |
| Runaways | 570 |
| Criminal offence of abduction | 571 |
| Exemption of children's refuges | 572 |

PART IV CHILDREN AND SOCIETY

| | |
|--|------------|
| CHAPTER 13 CHILDREN IN COURT | 575 |
| Introduction | 575 |
| A new philosophy: the importance of children's views | 576 |
| International obligations and human rights in the court process | 576 |
| The European Convention on the Exercise of Children's Rights 1996 | 577 |
| The European Convention on Human Rights | 579 |
| Commencing an action | 580 |
| Traditional procedure | 580 |
| Exceptions under the Children Act 1989 | 580 |
| When can a child invoke these procedures? | 581 |
| Representation | 584 |
| Background | 584 |
| Current trends | 585 |
| CAFCASS – the reorganisation of representation in family proceedings | 585 |
| Public family proceedings | 587 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Private family proceedings | 593 |
| Evidence | 596 |
| Civil proceedings | 598 |
| Criminal proceedings | 603 |
| CHAPTER 14 CHILDREN AND THE CRIMINAL LAW | 613 |
| Introduction | 613 |
| Protection | 614 |
| Violent crimes and physical harm | 615 |
| Sexual offences | 620 |
| Special offences relating to children | 628 |
| Responsibility | 630 |
| The Crime and Disorder Act 1998 | 630 |
| Criminal responsibility of children and young persons | 633 |
| Responsibility of parents | 636 |
| Young offenders and the criminal process | 640 |
| Prevention and diversion | 640 |
| The investigative process | 642 |
| The criminal courts | 645 |
| Conclusion: New Labour's approach to juvenile crime | 657 |
| CHAPTER 15: CHILDREN AND THE CIVIL LAW | 659 |
| Introduction | 659 |
| Children and the law of tort | 660 |
| Protection of children | 660 |
| Responsibility for children's acts | 670 |
| Children and the law of contract | 673 |
| Valid contracts | 674 |
| Voidable contracts | 676 |
| Unenforceable contracts: liability under the Minors' Contracts Act 1987, in restitution or in tort | 676 |
| A Scottish solution for England? | 677 |
| The employment of children and young persons | 679 |
| Historical background | 680 |
| International obligations regarding the employment of children and young people | 681 |
| English law: The current situation | 683 |
| The employment of children | 683 |
| The employment of young persons | 687 |
| CHAPTER 16 CHILDREN AND EDUCATION | 689 |
| Introduction | 689 |
| Resources and parental choice | 690 |
| Minimum standards | 690 |
| Parental choice | 691 |
| Rights versus responsibilities | 692 |
| Attendance and discipline | 693 |
| Attendance | 693 |
| Discipline | 700 |
| The curriculum | 707 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| General principles | 707 |
| Secular education: the National Curriculum | 709 |
| Sex education | 711 |
| Religious education, worship and parental upbringing | 715 |
| Special educational needs | 719 |
| General duties towards children with SEN | 721 |
| The definition of special educational needs | 722 |
| The choice of school | 723 |
| Identification and assessment of children with SEN | 723 |
| Review of statements | 726 |
| Parents' rights or children's rights? | 726 |
| Children accommodated in independent schools, LEA schools and other establishments | 726 |
| Children accommodated in health and educational establishments | 727 |
| Children accommodated in boarding-schools and colleges | 727 |
| The implications of human rights | 728 |
| CHAPTER 17 CHILDREN IN THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY | 731 |
| Introduction | 731 |
| The International Children's Rights Movement | 731 |
| The Declaration of Geneva 1924 | 732 |
| Post-war developments | 733 |
| The Declaration of the Rights of the Child 1959 | 753 |
| The debate about general application | 734 |
| The Hague Child Protection Convention 1996 | 735 |
| What is the Convention about? | 736 |
| Convention on Contact concerning Children | 738 |
| Brussels II and Brussels II bis | 741 |
| The Abduction Conventions | 742 |
| Preventing abduction | 743 |
| The criminal law | 744 |
| The civil law | 745 |
| Recovery of children | 749 |
| Intercountry adoption | 765 |
| Introduction background | 765 |
| The United Nations Convention | 767 |
| The Adoption Review | 767 |
| The Hague Convention | 769 |
| Romania: a test case for intercountry adoption? | 771 |
| Conclusion | 774 |
| INDEX | 775 |