

Contents

Acknowledgements VII

List of Maps VIII

Note on Transliteration IX

Introduction: The History of Historiography, Historical Master Narratives, and This Book 1

- 1 The History of Historiography and the Narrativist Turn 1
- 2 Grand and Master Narratives and the "Nationalization" of History 11
- 3 Master Narratives of the Middle Ages 19
- 4 Master Narratives of the Bulgarian Middle Ages 25

1 "Romantic" History-Writing and the Beginnings of a "Critical" Historiography of the Middle Ages in Bulgaria 40

- 1 "Romantic" Historiography 40
- 2 The Beginnings of a "Critical" Historiography and Fragments of a Master Narrative 53

2 The Establishment of the National Master Narrative 69

- 1 Vasil Zlatarski 69
- 2 Petăr Mutaŭchiev 89
- 3 Petăr Nikov 111
- 4 The Young Ivan Duychev and Other Scholars 125

3 The Attempt at a Marxist Counter-narrative after World War II 139

- 1 The Marxist "Historical Front" and the Ideological Offensive 139
- 2 The Establishment of the Marxist/Stalinist Master Counter-narrative 149
- 3 Relations between Bulgars and Slavs and the Character of the State 157
- 4 The Conversion to Christianity and the Byzantine Influence 161
- 5 Ubiquitous Feudalism and Its Revision 167
- 6 The End of the Bulgarian Middle Ages and Ottoman Feudalism 184
- 7 Class Struggles: Bogomilism and Ivaylo's Peasant Uprising 190
- 8 The Beginnings of Communist Nationalism: The Work of Cyril and Methodius and the Boyana "Renaissance" 197

4 Communist Nationalism and the Return to the National Master

Narrative 207

- 1 The Turn toward Communist Nationalism 208
- 2 Statehood 216
- 3 Continuity 224
- 4 The Bulgarian Ethnogenesis 231
- 5 The Return of the Bulgars 243
- 6 Great Rulers and "Golden Ages" 249
- 7 The Bulgarianization of the Work of Cyril and Methodius 257
- 8 The Byzantine Influence Reconsidered 261

Epilogue: New Trends in the Historiography of the Middle Ages in Bulgaria 270

- 1 The "Rewriting" of the History of the Middle Ages in Bulgaria 270
- 2 Curiosities and Speculations 283
- 3 Everyday Life, Women's History 285
- 4 Representations and Images of the Other 287
- 5 New Approaches to the Ethnogenesis 293
- 6 Taking Religion Seriously 296
- 7 The "Philosophy" of Bulgarian History 300
- 8 Making Sense of Bulgarian Medievalist Historiography 302

Maps 307

Bibliography 317

Index 340