

---

Table of Contents

---

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Chapter 1: Preconceptions                          | 1  |
| I. Introduction   | 1  |
| II. The Importance of Research                            | 3  |
| III. The Project  | 9  |
| IV. Acknowledgments                                       | 10 |
| Chapter 2: The Family Law Bar                      | 11 |
| I. Introduction   | 11 |
| II. The Demographic Characteristics of the Family Law Bar | 12 |
| III. Specialisation                                       | 17 |
| IV. Remuneration and Regulation of the Family Law Bar     | 19 |
| Chapter 3: Overview of the Barristers' Role        | 31 |
| I. Introduction   | 31 |
| II. Public Law Children Cases                             | 34 |
| III. Private Law Children Cases                           | 39 |
| IV. Financial Cases                                       | 43 |
| Chapter 4: Financial Cases                         | 49 |
| I. Introduction   | 49 |
| II. George and the 'World Businessman'                    | 51 |
| III. Caroline and the Novelist                            | 55 |
| IV. Louise and the Surprise Ending                        | 57 |
| V. Charles and the Failing Small Businessman              | 59 |
| VI. Graham: A Final Hearing with Little on the Table      | 65 |
| VII. Alice's 'Mediation'                                  | 71 |
| Chapter 5: Children Cases: Contact                 | 73 |
| I. Introduction   | 73 |
| II. Jane and the Unrepresented Foster Parent              | 74 |
| III. David and the Three-Year Old with the Short Fuse     | 78 |
| IV. Jonathan and the Concerned Mother                     | 82 |

Table of Contents

|   |                |
|---|----------------|
| Chapter 6: Child Protection Cases  | 91      |
| I. Introduction                           | 91             |
| II. Nadia's Case Conference               | 92             |
| III. Claudia and the Underweight Toddler  | 93             |
| IV. Isobel's Directions Hearing           | 96             |
| V. Sarah and the Disturbed Client         | 97             |
| VI. Peter and the Family of Five Children | 101            |
| VII. James's Midnight Brief               | 104            |
| Epilogue                       | 117 |
| I. Case Management and the Court System   | 117            |
| II. Mentor and Guide                      | 118            |
| III. Image and Reality                    | 122            |
| Index                          | 125 |