

Contents

Introduction	page 5
1 Getting Started	Dialogues 1	Dialogues 2
page 7	Welcoming a speaker Welcoming visitors and introducing the speaker Saying who you are Explaining the reasons for listening Starting with a personal story Starting with an interesting fact	Giving background Explaining the plan for the session Outlining a presentation Questions while you talk Questions at the end Handouts at the end Handouts now
2 Moving on	Dialogues 1	Dialogues 2
page 15	Using questions to organise Organising points The general to the specific Presenting options Giving your opinion Referring back Changing topic	Reporting bad news Reporting positive information Explaining the meaning of abbreviations Explaining the meaning of specific words/terms Giving examples Repeating your point using different words Expressing possible/likely outcomes Concluding and moving on
3 Numbers	Dialogues 1	Dialogues 2
page 23	Percentages Fractions Large and small numbers Decimal points Positive and negative numbers Approximate numbers	An increase A decrease Staying the same High and low points Predicting Describing changes
4 Visual Aids	Dialogues 1	Dialogues 2
page 31	Using slides Changing slides Looking at detail Commenting on the content of a visual Moving between different visual aids Problems	Explaining a graph Using a pie chart Explaining a diagram Describing a flow chart Describing a table
5 Problems and questions	Dialogues 1	Dialogues 2
page 39	Losing your place in your notes You don't know the English word A deleted or wrong slide Time has run out You have forgotten to say something Making a mistake You are unable to do something you had planned to do	Interruptions to your talk You don't understand a question A question that is not on the topic You don't know the answer to a question An aggressive or difficult question No questions
6 Concluding	Dialogues 1	Dialogues 2
page 47	Making a final point Giving your professional opinion Summarising main points Summarising advantages and disadvantages Making a recommendation Stating sources and further reading	Telling people how to contact you A final summary Thanking people for listening An informal ending Ending on a positive note Ending with a final thought Ending with a quote
Glossary	page 55
Answers	page 61	