INTRODUCTION

Adaptation and behaviour in evolution V.J.A. Novák . . . . .	3
Heredity of behaviour in the context of current evolutionary synthesis. 1. General prerequisites K. Zemek, J. Mlíkovský . . . . .	11
On the problem of the cosmoevolutionary scale of behaviour and evolution T. Kardašev . . . . .	19

THE ROLE OF BEHAVIOUR IN ADAPTIVE PROCESSES

Behaviour as the leading factor of animal evolution V.J.A. Novák . . . . .	27
Heredity of behavior in the context of current evolutionary synthesis. 2. Levels of behavior determination J. Mlíkovský, K. Zemek . . . . .	33
Allometrical approach in behavioral sciences J. Mlíkovský . . . . .	41
Adaptive strategy of tool behaviour in higher primate evolution V. Vančata, K. Zemek, M.A. Vančatová, V. Blažek . . . . .	45
Manipulatory activity as a basis of tool-using behavior evolu- tion in birds and mammals Z.A. Zorina, M.A. Deriagina, N.V. Markina . . . . .	59
Adaptive patterns in behaviour of Old World monkeys V. Vančata, M.A. Vančatová, V.G. Čaljan . . . . .	67
Connection between some forms of behavior as a factor of anthropogenesis M.A. Deriagina, M.L. Boutovskaja . . . . .	81
Ontogenetical development of behavioral contacts in monkeys M.A. Vančatová, V. Vančata . . . . .	87
Intraspecific geographical variability of behaviour: An evolutionary review J. Mlíkovský . . . . .	95

PSYCHOPHYSIOLOGICAL BASES OF BEHAVIOUR

The mind-brain problem from the point of view of neurosciences
T. Radil . . . . .	105
Learning, behaviour and evolution
V.J.A. Novák . . . . .	113
Interrelationship between conscious and unconscious processes as reflected in the occurrence of scientific ideas
T. Radil . . . . .	117
Unconscious perceptual phenomena influenced by conscious ones
J. Radilová . . . . .	123
To the concept of unconscious
T. Radil . . . . .	131
Contemporary problems of the theory of adaptation, reflection and development of the higher forms of learning
J. Linhart . . . . .	135
Stimulus prediction by the brain
J. Radilová, T. Radil . . . . .	145

ADAPTIVE MECHANISMS AND THEIR EVOLUTIONARY MEANING

The effect of selection for behavior of the morphological and functional state of the epiphyses of the silver fox
L.A. Kolesnikova, D.B. Belyaev . . . . .	151
Some aspects of the evolution of orientational photobiological systems
Z. Masinovský . . . . .	159
Demographic aspects of the sexual selection
J. Mlíkovský . . . . .	171
The multiaspectual model of biocultural investigation (The peculiarity of the relation between biological and cultural factors in the process of human evolution)
J. Piontek, A. Weber . . . . .	179
Evolution of life on remote islands
S. Fridriksson . . . . .	189
Biomechanical model of the evolutive morphology of human skull
V. Pesce Delfino, C. De Marzo, A. Prete, N. Stuci, R. Lenoci . . . . .	195
Evolutionary morphology of the branchial region as the reflection of environmental changes
J. Slípka . . . . .	203
Physical culture and sport as factors of the species form of man development
A.N. Studitsky . . . . .	213
Kth degree polynomial equations and Fourier harmonics describing contours and section of the skull for morphological distances: Procedure and preliminary results
V. Pesce Delfino, V. Scatarella, S. De Lucia, G. Alciati . . . . .	221

GENERAL QUESTIONS

Behaviour, adaptation and evolution from the standpoint of the thermodynamics of quasiequilibrium in biological systems T.D. Kardašev, D.L. Velkov . . . . .	231
The perspective of the evolutionary method in the research of behaviour N.P. Depenčuk . . . . .	235
The meaning of adaptive function A. Wiercinska . . . . .	241
Sociobiology, genetics and the evolution of human consciousness V.J.A. Novák . . . . .	249
The most tragical misuse of the Darwinian concept of selection T. Radil . . . . .	255
The contribution of behaviour to the evolution of human society V.J.A. Novák . . . . .	261
Author index . . . . .	269
