

Introduction	1
What is a curator?	2
The different types of curator (subject specialist, collection-based, independent, artist, head of department)	6
Why is curating flourishing today?	12
The curator as catalyst or conduit for ideas	13
The curator as author, editor and critic	15
Routes into curatorial practice	18
Work placements and internships	21
The first rung on the ladder	23
The curator as judge	23
Who is this book aimed at?	26
 Chapter 1: Starting Off	28
Ideas and inspirations	30
Funder or sponsor's agenda	35
Types of exhibition	36
Curating an art-fair stand	48
 Chapter 2: From Idea to Reality	54
How to turn good ideas into real exhibitions	56
The exhibition outline document	58
Refining the theme of your show and compiling a list of works	60
Space planning	64
Touring opportunities	66
 Chapter 3: Proposals, Pitching and Planning	68
Targeting an initial proposal	71
Making your exhibition pitch	75

Securing touring venues	81
Proposal documents / exhibition planning	83
Working with other curators / external curators / you as external curator	85
Chapter 4: Budgets and Fundraising	88
How to put together a realistic budget	90
Sticking to a budget	94
Financial accountability	98
Funding / sponsorship / sponsorship in kind	100
Identifying and persuading sponsors	101
Charitable trusts and foundations	105
Touring agreements and fees (selling exhibitions / borrowing exhibitions)	106
Chapter 5: Contracts, Negotiations, Obligations and Evaluations	110
Contracts with institutions, commercial galleries and other organizations	112
Evaluations / visitor surveys	115
Exhibition fees and what a curator should charge	118
Scheduling an exhibition	119
Chapter 6: Exhibition Publications & Merchandise	124
Deciding to produce a catalogue or book for the show	126
A publications team	129
Producing a booklet or pamphlet	130
Commissioning, editing and writing texts	131
Picture collection, copyright, courtesy lines and clearance	136

Graphic design	141
Overseeing printing and production	143
Distribution and promotion	147
Merchandise design	148
Chapter 7: Putting a Show Together	152
The venue and its architecture	154
Commercial spaces: the curator as gallerist / dealer	157
Exhibition design using CAD, scale models and walking the space	159
Sequencing your gallery spaces and works of art	163
How long will the visitor spend in your exhibition?	164
Technology and new media	165
Black box spaces	168
Building walls	171
Wall colours	173
Display furniture	174
Space and visitor access	177
Barriers	178
Health & Safety	180
Letters of request	182
Facilities reports	185
Negotiating with artists and lenders	187
Working with artists on commissions	189
Working with artists on solo exhibitions	191
Working with artists as part of a group exhibition	192
Working with a registrar	193
What the registrar needs to know	196
Insurance / indemnity	199
Loan agreements and special conditions	200
Shipping	201
When the art arrives	204
Documenting the exhibition process	206

Chapter 8: The Weeks Before the Opening	212
Interpretation material (wall labels and panels, leaflets and exhibition guides)	214
Writing the press release	218
Private view invitations	220
Maintaining mailing lists	225
Planning other pre-opening events	226
Working with a press and PR agency	227
Chapter 9: Installation	236
Art handling	238
Installation schedule and looking at works in situ	243
Signing off the layout	244
Fixing the works to the wall	245
Lighting	248
Education, event spaces and resource areas	252
Live art events	257
Public liability insurance	261
Chapter 10: The Days Before Opening and the Opening Day	264
Final adjustments.....	266
Staff briefings	266
Security issues	267
Chapter 11: The Press Opening and Private View	276
The press view and interviews: the curator as spokesperson for the exhibition	279
Organizing the PV	285
Making speeches	287
Giving tours	289

Chapter 8: The Weeks Before the Opening 212

Interpretation material (wall labels and panels, leaflets and exhibition guides)	214
Writing the press release	218
Private view invitations	220
Maintaining mailing lists	225
Planning other pre-opening events	226
Working with a press and PR agency	227

Chapter 9: Installation 236

Art handling	238
Installation schedule and looking at works in situ	243
Signing off the layout	244
Fixing the works to the wall	245
Lighting	248
Education, event spaces and resource areas	252
Live art events	257
Public liability insurance	261

Chapter 10: The Days Before Opening and the Opening Day 264

Final adjustments.....	266
Staff briefings	266
Security issues	267

Chapter 11: The Press Opening and Private View 276

The press view and interviews: the curator as spokesperson for the exhibition	279
Organizing the PV	285
Making speeches	287
Giving tours	289

Chapter 12: During – and After – the Exhibition 296

Documenting your exhibition	298
Scheduling regular tasks during the run of the exhibition	299
Following up enquiries and building your network	301
Taking down the show and returning artworks	301
Assessing success and learning from your mistakes	303

Afterword: The Future of Curatorial Practice 305

Notes	316
Index	324