

CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors xi

1. Elite Transformation and Modes of Representation since the Mid-Nineteenth Century: Some Theoretical Considerations 1
HEINRICH BEST AND MAURIZIO COTTA
2. The Incremental Transformation of the Danish Legislative Elite: The Party System as Prime Mover 29
MOGENS N. PEDERSEN
3. From Political Amateur to Professional Politician and Expert Representative: Parliamentary Recruitment in Finland since 1863 50
ILKKA RUOSTETSAARI
4. Detours to Modernity: Long-Term Trends of Parliamentary Recruitment in Republican France 1848-1999 88
HEINRICH BEST AND DANIEL GAXIE
5. Challenges, Failures, and Final Success: The Winding Path of German Parliamentary Leadership Groups towards a Structurally Integrated Elite 1848-1999 138
HEINRICH BEST, CHRISTOPHER HAUSMANN, AND KARL SCHMITT
6. Belated Professionalization of Parliamentary Elites: Hungary 1848-1999 196
GABRIELLA ILONSZKI
7. Parliamentary Elite Transformations along the Discontinuous Road of Democratization: Italy 1861-1999 226
MAURIZIO COTTA, ALFIO MASTROPAOLO, AND LUCA VERZICHELLI
8. Representatives of the Dutch People: The Smooth Transformation of the Parliamentary Elite in a Consociational Democracy 1849-1998 270
INEKE SECKER

9.	Democratization and Parliamentary Elite Recruitment in Norway 1848–1996	310
	KJELL A. ELIASSEN AND MARIT SJØVAAG MARINO
10.	Political Recruitment and Elite Transformation in Modern Portugal 1870–1999: The Late Arrival of Mass Representation	341
	JOSÉ M. MAGONE
11.	Spanish Diputados : From the 1876 Restoration to Consolidated Democracy	371
	JUAN LINZ, PILAR GANGAS, AND MIGUEL JEREZ MIR
12.	Continuity and Change: Legislative Recruitment in the United Kingdom 1868–1999	463
	MICHAEL RUSH AND VALERIE CROMWELL
13.	Between Professionalization and Democratization: A Synoptic View on the Making of the European Representative	493
	MAURIZIO COTTA AND HEINRICH BEST
	Index	527