

Contents

---

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: The Last Man Takes LSD	1
1 The Birth of a Controversy	13
Foucault and the liberal arts of government	20
Foucault in his present	23
Neoliberalism	29
The intellectual	32
2 Searching for a Left Governmentality	38
Foucault against the post-war Left	41
Neoliberalism beyond Right and Left	52
Towards a 'new political culture'	65
3 Beyond the Sovereign Subject: Against Interpretation	73
Against the sovereignty of the author	81
The rise and fall of the modern subject	88
4 Ordeals: Personal and Political	105
Veridiction and forms of truth	106
Experimentation and knowledge through the ordeal	114
A 'political spirituality' against the sovereign	123

5	The Revolution Beheaded	139
	The self as a battlefield	143
	Resistance as 'desubjectification'	149
	Proliferation against power	152
	Neoliberalism: a framework for pluralism	157
	An 'intelligent use' of neoliberalism	167
6	Foucault's Normativity	172
	Sexuality and morality	173
	The revolution	182
	Inequality and neoliberal governmentality	184
	The California Foucault	191
7	Rogue Neoliberalism and Liturgical Power	197
	The 1970s: coming down	204
	Towards a left governmentality	210
	Confessional civil war	219
	Epilogue	233
	Index	239