

Table of Contents

Preface.....	V
Part I
Introduction	1
Part II
The Study in Brief.....	8
Part III
The Questionnaire	10
A. The Two Hypothetical Cases	10
1. General Remarks	10
2. The Eviction Case	11
3. The Check Collection Case.....	14
4. Are These Two Cases Characteristic?	15
5. Conclusion	17
B. The Variables Which Are the Basis for the Formalism Index.....	18
1. General Remarks	18
2. Professionals versus Laymen	18
3. Written versus Oral	20
4. Legal Justification	23
5. Statutory Regulation of Evidence	25
6. Control of Superior Review	31
7. Engagement Formalities	34
8. Independent Procedural Actions	35
9. Conclusion	37
C. The Supplementary Questions	38
1. Incentives of Parties	38
2. Duration in Practice.....	41
3. Conclusion	43

Part IV

The Classification..... 44

 A. The Neighbor Model 44

 1. General Remarks 44

 2. The Study’s Approach: The Neighbor Model 45

 B. The Application of the Neighbor Model to the Questions
 Which Are the Basis for the Formalism Index 49

 1. General Remarks 49

 2. Professionals versus Laymen..... 49

 3. Written versus Oral..... 51

 4. Legal Justification..... 51

 5. Statutory Regulation of Evidence..... 52

 6. Control of Superior Review..... 53

 7. Engagement Formalities 55

 8. Independent Procedural Actions..... 56

 9. Conclusion..... 57

 C. The Classification Regarding the Supplementary Questions on Incentives 58

 1. Duration in Practice 58

 2. Incentives of Parties..... 58

 3. Conclusion..... 62

Part V

The Aggregation of the Data 64

 A. The Study’s Approach 64

 1. The Formalism Index..... 64

 2. The Supplementary Questions..... 65

 B. The Aggregation of the Data for the Formalism Index 65

 1. General Remarks 65

 2. Professionals versus Laymen..... 66

 3. Written versus Oral..... 67

4. Legal Justification.....	67
5. Statutory Regulation of Evidence.....	67
6. Control of Superior Review.....	72
7. Engagement Formalities.....	72
8. Independent Procedural Actions.....	74
9. Mandatory Time Limits Missing.....	75
10. The Formalism Index.....	75
11. Conclusion.....	76
C. The Aggregation of the Data for the Supplementary Questions on Time Limits	77
Part VI
The “Other Judicial Quality Measures” and the “Other Variables”	78
A. The “Other Judicial Quality Measures” and their Sources.....	79
1. Measuring Judicial Quality.....	79
2. Business Environmental Risk Intelligence (Enforceability of Contracts)	80
3. World Business Environment Survey (Legal System Is Fair and Impartial, Honest and Uncorrupt; Affordable; Consistent; Confidence in Legal System).....	81
4. Transparency International (Corruption).....	83
5. PRS Group International Country Risk Guide (Law and Order)	84
6. Conclusion.....	85
B. The “Other Variables” and their Sources	86
1. World Development Indicators/CIA World Factbook (Log of GNP per capita)	86
2. La Porta et al. [1999] (Legal Origin).....	87
3. CIA Factbook (Latitude)	95
4. Human Development Report (Average Years of Schooling)	96

5.	Alesina et al. [2003] (Ethnic Fractionalization)	97
6.	Conclusion	98
Part VII
The Use of the Data and the Study’s Interpretation.....		99
A. The Formalism Index and the Sub-Indices.....		99
1.	The Study’s Findings.....	99
2.	The Study’s Interpretation	100
3.	Additional Observations	102
B. Formalism and the Quality of Courts		104
1.	The Study’s Findings.....	104
2.	The Study’s Interpretation	105
3.	Additional Observations	111
C. The Study’s Conclusion		115
Part VIII
Brief Thoughts about the Implication of the Study’s Conclusion.....		120
Part IX
Some General Comments on the Study		123
A. The Study’s Approach – “Numerical Comparative Law”.....		123
B. The Study’s Understanding of Legal History and the “Transplantation Hypothesis”		125
C. The Recommendation.....		130
Part X
About this Book		132
Part XI
Conclusion.....		135

Appendix 1
Table I..... 137

Appendix 2
Table IIa..... 148

Appendix 3
Table IIb 151

Appendix 4
Table III 154

Appendix 5
Table IV 155

Appendix 6
Table V 156

Appendix 7
Table VI..... 159

Appendix 8
Table VII..... 160

Appendix 9
Table VIII 161

Bibliography 163

Index 177