

Contents

List of Contributors

ix

PART I. PARAMETERS OF CIVIL JUSTICE

1. Justice in Crisis: Comparative Dimensions of Civil Procedure 3
Adrian A. S. Zuckerman
2. The Myth of Civil Procedure Reform 53
John Leubsdorf

PART II. COMMON LAW COUNTRIES

3. Malaise of the Litigation Superpower 71
Richard L. Marcus
4. Justice in Crisis: England and Wales 117
Paul Michalik
5. Civil Justice Reform in Australia 166
G. L. Davies

PART III. CIVIL LAW COUNTRIES

6. Civil Justice Reform: Access, Cost, and Expedition. The German Perspective 207
Peter Gottwald
7. Civil Justice Reform: Access, Cost, and Expedition. The Japanese Perspective 235
Yukiko Hasebe
8. Civil Justice and its Paradoxes: An Italian Perspective 263
Sergio Chiarloni
9. Civil Justice Reform: Access, Cost, and Delay. The French Perspective 291
Loïc Cadiet

10. Administration of Civil Justice in Brazil	347
Sergio Bermudes
11. Civil Justice Reform: Access, Costs, and Delay. A Greek Perspective	363
K. D. Kerameus and S. Koussoulis
12. Civil Justice in Spain: Present and Future. Access, Cost, and Duration	385
Ignacio Díes-Picazo Giménez
13. The Portuguese System of Civil Procedure	413
Maria Manuel Leitão Marques, Conceição Gomes, and João Pedroso
14. Civil Justice: Access, Cost, and Expedition. The Netherlands	442
Erhard Blankenburg
15. Swiss Civil Justice: With an Emphasis on the Laws of the Canton of Zurich	464
Isaak Meier	