

CONTENTS

PART I. – The History and Development of Toilets (Renáta Sedláčková)

- Foreword 8
 - Where and When the Idea for This Book Originated 9
- A History of Toilets 12
 - Mesopotamia from 4000 BCE 13
 - Egypt from 3150 BCE 14
 - Skara Brae, Scotland 3100–2450 BCE 16
 - India from 2800 BCE 16
 - Minoan Culture 2700–1100 BCE 18
 - Greece from 2000 BCE 18
 - Ancient Rome 753 BCE–476 CE 20
 - Imperial China from 206 BCE 24
 - The Middle Ages 500–1500 25
 - The Renaissance 1500–1620 30
 - Baroque and Rococo 1610–1750 33
 - Classicism and the Industrial Revolution: 18th–19th Centuries 36
 - The Development and Spread of Technology: 20th Century 46
 - The Present and a Look Toward the Future: 21st Century 59
- Conclusion, Acknowledgments 69

PART II. A Selection of Exhibits from the Museum's Collection – Chamber Pots, Bedpans, Urinals, and Toilets (Renáta Sedláčková and Jan Sedláček)

• Chamber Pots	70
• Chamber Pots Made for Eminent Persons	70
• Porcelain and Ceramic Chamber Pots	75
• Metal Chamber Pots	88
• Enameled Metal Chamber Pots	91
• Glass Chamber Pots	93
• Commercial Chamber Pots – for Hotels, Buildings, and Ships	94
• Chamber Pots for Celebrations, with Multiple Handles, with Music Boxes	96
• Wedding Chamber Pots	100
• Chamber Pots for Boys	104
• Plastic Chamber Pots	105
• Bedpans	106
• Portable Urinals – Bourdaloues, for Women, for Men	108
• Toilets	114
• Urinals	114
• Squat Toilets	116
• Travel and Portable Toilets	118
• Night Tables and Commodes	126
• Children's Toilets	128
• Water Closets, Their Components and Trappings	130

PART III. Human Waste in History, Religion, and Law, and the Influence of Water Pollution on Human Populations (Jan Sedláček)

• Foreword	137
• Defining Human Waste	140
• Definitions and Characteristics	140
• Sewage Management Practices in Developed Countries	142
• Modern Technology, Sewer Systems	142
• Sewage: Ownership and Responsibility	142
• Statistical Data, The Causes and Occurrence of Epidemics	143
• The History of Pandemics and Their Origins	144
• Faith, Religion, and Hygiene	146
• The Causes of the Defecation Taboo in Religion	146
• Christianity	146
• Islam	147
• Buddhism, Hinduism, Judaism	148
• Personal Hygiene	149

• Defecation and Urination in the Arts	151
•• Literature	151
•• Painting	153
•• Sculpture	155
•• Architecture	157
•• Conceptual Art	157
• Waste Management in Law and Legislation	158
•• The Historical Absence of Legal Regulations for the Disposal of Excrement	158
•• Current Legal Status	162
•• Czech Law	162
• Real Future Threats	164
•• Looking for Water in Space, Water as the Basis of Life	165
•• Risks Related to the Occurrence of Modern Substances in Excrement and Their Presence in Wastewater and the Aquatic Environment	165
•• Medications	165
•• Recreational Drugs	167
•• Hormones	167
•• Genetically Modified Plants	167
•• Nutritional Supplements	168
•• Studies on the Risks of Residues and Metabolites	168
•• Attention to Water and Waste Management from International Organizations	169
•• Current Reflections in Relation to the COVID-19 Pandemic	170
• Reflections and Recommendations	172
• Conclusion	172

PART IV. Curiosities, Contests, Charity (Renáta Sedláčková and Jan Sedláček)

• Foreword	173
• A Selection of Exhibits from the Museum's Collection	173
•• Hygiene	173
•• Curiosities	181
• Stories and Photographs from the Museum's Contests	193
• "Artwork on a Chamber Pot" for the Museum's Charity Events	200
• Afterword	202
• Awards Received	203
• References and Sources	204
• Acknowledgments	207
• About the Authors	208