

TABLE DES MATIÈRES

	PAGES
Forward by Mr. Raymond FORNI, President of the national Assembly .	5
Presentation, by Georges CHATILLON, Lecturer at the University of Paris-I Panthéon-Sorbonne, Chairman of the Scientific Committee and the Colloquium Organisation Committee, Director of the Internet Law – Administration – Businesses DESS.	7
Section I. – Establishing the law applicable to the networks
A. – Standards applicable to the Internet : benefits and limitations
Chairmanship : Guy CANIVET, First President of the Court of cassation .	45
1. – Standards applicable to the internet : benefits, limitations, issues
Standard private international law, by Bénédicte FAUVARQUE-COSSON, Professor at the René Descartes University, Paris V	53
The Law applicable to Digital networks, by Jérôme HUET, Professor at the University of Paris II (Panthéon-Assas), France, Director of CEJEM (Centre for legal and economic multimedia studies)	63
The influence of the internet on establishing the Law, by Pierre TRUDEL, Centre for research on public law, University of Montreal	81
Discussion.	93
2. – Methods of establishing international law
What links european and international law – beyond country of origin or destination, by Diana WALLIS, European Parliament, spokeswoman for the ELRD Group, Committee on legal affairs and the internal market	105
Should there be a minimum harmonisation of the law?, by Valérie Laure BENABOU, Professor at the University of Lyons 2	167
International aspects of electronic commerce, by Eric A. CAPRIOLI, Barrister at the Nice bar, Professor at EDHEC	179

	PAGES
Taxation of electronic commerce : initial results, by Stéphane BUYDENS, OECD, Administrator of the tax affairs division, Responsible for e-commerce	191
Discussion	207
General report standards applicable to the internet : benefits and limitations, by Herbert BURKERT, President of the « information law », Research Centre and Director of the Centre of Expertise on « network policies », FHG – Institute for media and communication, Saint Augustin, Germany	211
B. – New forms of regulating networks : issues and prospects
Chairmanship : Francis TEITGEN, Chairman of the Bar Council at the Paris Court of Appeal	221
1. – Cybercrime and networks
The convention on cybercrimes, by Guy DE VEL, Director general of legal affairs at the council of Europe	225
Internet and Judicial investigation, by Jean-Wilfrid NOËL, Judge, Tribunal d'instance, Vanves	233
Internet and Judicial investigation : difficulties in judicial practice, by Jacques PLAYS, Squadron leader, General Headquarters of the national Gendarmerie	245
Discussion	255
2. – Governance of the internet and trust
The internet, a defective governance, by Richard DELMAS, Principle administrator, European commission, directorate general	265
Internet rights forum : an instrument of governance, by Isabelle FALQUE-PIERROTIN, Legal advisor to the Conseil d'Etat , President of the Forum of the Internet rights	271
Self-regulation, regulation and co-regulation of networks, by Bertrand DU MARAIS, Legal advisor at the Conseil d'Etat	279
GBDE, Self regulation, trust, governance, by Bertrand COUSIN, Special adviser to the chairman of Vivendi Universal	295

PAGES

Statement of the Internet Society, supervision and control of the network : non-governmental organisations and users, by David W. MAHER, ISOC, Vice-president, Public policy, and Marc ROTENBERG, Lawyer, EPIC, USA	305
Discussion	315
General report, by Isabelle FALQUE-PIERROTIN, Legal advisor at the Conseil d'Etat , Chairperson of the Internet Law Forum	325
Address by Michel Kaplan, by Michel KAPLAN, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne	329

Section II. – The implementation of Internet laws

A. – E-commerce : what protections ?

Adress by M. Robert BADINTER, President of Arpeje	335
---	-----

1. – The implementation of Internet laws

European Union initiatives in the field of Internet law, by Robert VERRUE, Director general for the Information Society, European Commission	345
The place of the Internet and E-Commerce in Multilateral negotiations, by Alain-Louis MIE, France Télécom, Manager of Multilateral External Relations	349
The International legal framework for Electronic commerce : the issues to be considered to ensure its development, by Jeanne SEYVET, Secretary of State for industry, Director general for industry, Information technology and postal services, France	361
Consumer protection and S.M.ES, by Georges CHATILLON, Lecturer, University of Paris-I, Panthéon-Sorbonne	367
Electronic Authenticity, by Maître Didier FROGER, Notaire	381
The UNCITRAL's model law on electronic signatures, by Renaud SORIEUL, Chief administrator, Department of International Trade Law, The UN's legal affairs Office	389
Canadian and american legislation on electronic signatures with reflections on the European Union Directive, by John D. GREGORY, General Counsel, Policy Branch, Ministry of the Attorney general, Ontario – Canada	399
Discussion	415

2. – What protection? Which laws?

Is protection of personal data guaranteed on the Internet?, by Jean FRAYSSINET, Professor at the University of Aix-Marseille III	421
Droit d'auteur and copyright : what is the relationship ?, by Michel VIVANT, Professor at the University of Montpellier I, Director of the Research Team, « Intangible creative Works and Law », Partner in the Firm of Gilles Vercken, Paris	431
Copyright and droit d'auteurs. A note on differences in legal culture and practical implications – today and tomorrow, by Mads Bryde ANDERSEN, Professor of Law, University of Copenhagen, Institute of Legal Science	439
Authors' rights and exceptions for Private copying in the age of the Internet, by Marc MOSSÉ, Member of the Paris Bar, August & Debouzy	445
The Patentability of Software, by Alain BENSOUSSAN, Barrister at the Paris Bar	457
General rapporteur, by Jean-Paul BRIN, Barrister at the Pau Court of Appeal, Former Chairman of the Bar	467

B. – How to resolve transnational conflicts?

Chairmanship : Ana PALACIO VALLELERSUNDI, President of the Committee on Legal affairs and the Internal Market, European Parliament . . .	483
--	-----

1. – How to resolve the conflicts?

How to resolve transnational conflicts?, by Kazunori ISHIGURO, Professor, The University of Tokyo, Faculty of Law	493
Resolving conflicts of Laws, by Jean-Sylvestre BERGÉ, Professor at the University of Paris X-Nanterre	501
Jurisdiction and the Internet, by S. LAKSHMINARAYAN, Ministry of Information Technology, Government of India	515
The implementation of Court rulings, by Christiane FÉRAL-SCHUHL, Partner, Legal Office Salans, Hertzfeld & Heilbronn	523
Thoughts on the development of case-law, by Jean-Jacques GOMEZ, First Vice President of the Paris regional court	545
Using the Internet to manage complex civil litigation, by Larry M. SMUKLER, Associate Justice, New Hampshire, Superior Court	551
Discussion	561

2. – Alternative ways of dealing with conflicts

An introduction to activities related to online dispute resolution in the information society at EU level, by Timothy FENOULHET, Directorate-general information society, European commission	571
Arbitration and E-commerce related disputes : legal barriers and challenges, by Andrés Moncayo VON HASE, Professor, University of Buenos-Aires, Argentina	579
Arbitration boards and E-commerce, by Maurice SCHELLEKENS, Centre for law, Public administration and computerisation, Faculty of law, Tilburg University	601
The online settlement of small consumer disputes, by Isabelle DE LAMBERTERIE, Director of Research – CNRS-CECOJI	613
General report, by Catherine KESSEDJIAN, Professor at the University of Panthéon-Assas Paris II	627
Address to the international colloquium on Internet law — European and international approaches, by Dan Eliasson, State Secretary, Ministry of Justice, Sweden	635
Closing speech, by Marylise LEBRANCHU, Ministre of Justice, Garde des Sceaux, France	639