
Contents

Preface	xi
1 Digital Nation at a Crossroads	1
2 “Everybody Should Know the Basics, Like How to Use a Computer”	17
Drinking from a Firehose	20
Desert Island Wish List	26
Walking to Timbuktu	32
3 A Faustian Bargain for the Digital Age	37
A Faustian Bargain	40
Selling Bits instead of Atoms	47
Stemming the Health Care Crisis	48
Unclogging the Autobahn	53
From the Crystal Palace to Silicon Valley	55
4 The New Frontier of Civil Rights	59
An Up-to-Date Education for All	61
Voting Made Easy . . . for Some	67
E-Government: Build It and They Will Come	73
5 A Digital Nation in Black and White	75
From Black and White to Technicolor	76
Digital Nation Retrenchment	80
Building Bridges and Connecting the Dots	88
6 Flattening the Virtual Landscape in Education	95
The Challenges of Raising Performance	97
Cross-Country Comparisons: Finland, Germany, and the United States	101

The Finnish Model	107
Policy Implications	109
7 Wire-less Youth: Rejuvenating the Net	113
The Future Is Here, and It's for Sale	114
A Generation, Divided	116
Youths as Producers and Savvy Consumers	119
Millennials Go Global	121
What's My Age in Web Years?	123
Conclusion	127
Notes	135
Bibliography	147
Index	159