

Contents

Contributors ix

Introduction:

- i An introduction to ethical models 3

Andrew Lawson

- ii Evolution of health care law 17

Margaret Branthwaite

Part A Issues of competence and autonomy

- 1 Consent for intensive care: Public and political expectations vs. conceptual and practical hurdles 33

M D Dominic Bell

- 2 Adults who lack capacity to consent 55

Daniele C Bryden

- 3 The best interest of babies and children 69

Christopher Newdick and Christopher Danbury

Part B Issues between doctor and patient

- 4 Taking it or leaving it: Demanding and refusing medical treatment in intensive care 91

Sheila A M McLean and Derek Morgan

- 5 Dying to know: Legal and ethical issues surrounding death and do not resuscitate orders 115

Hazel Biggs

- 6 Diagnosing death 135

Andrew Lawson

- 7 Ethics and law in critical care: Research in intensive care 145

Thomas E Woodcock

Part C Management-focused issues

8 NHS governance of critical care 171

David Pittaway QC and Nicholas A Peacock

9 Reverse triage? Managing scarce resources in intensive care 191

Christopher Newdick and Christopher Danbury

10 Doing what's best: Organ donation and intensive care 213

John Coggon

11 Conflicts of interest 233

Carl Waldmann, Neil Soni, and Andrew Lawson

Index 251