

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	9
Introduction	11
Chapter I
Constitutional standards	19
1. Right to conscientious objection	21
2. Medical ethics.....	28
3. Research experiment on humans	32
4. Status of a conceived child	39
5. Information about health condition	50
6. Constitutional right to health protection.....	55
7. Statute of limitation for claims	63
8. Protection of incapacitated persons.....	70
9. Filiation of a child	77
10. Medical ethics II.....	82
Chapter II
European standards	91
I. Jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights.....	93
1. Transsexualism.....	93
2. Assisted suicide	102
3. Substitute consent.....	108
4. Civil liability for childbirth	112
5. Abortion	117
6. Medically assisted procreation	128
II. Jurisprudence of the Court of Justice of the European Union.....	133
7. Abortion and free movement of services.....	133
8. Legislative competence in the sphere of health protection.....	141
9. Financing of cross-border medical services	147
10. Biotechnological directive	155
11. Right to reimbursement for cross-border treatment.....	162
12. Reimbursement for unauthorised cross-border treatment.....	170

Chapter III

Autonomy	185
1. Relative indications for procedure	187
2. Scope of duty to inform	190
3. Cosmetic surgery and duty to inform	193
4. Scope of duty to inform II	196
5. Duty to inform and civil liability	200
6. Burden of proof of providing information	204
7. Procedure utilizing products not admitted to trading	209
8. Validity of consent to surgery and lack of written form	213
9. Blank consent	217
10. Refusal of service and duty to inform	221
11. Duty to inform and omission of procedure	226
12. Penal liability for treatment without consent	231

Chapter IV

Civil liability	235
I. Liability principles and basis	237
1. Liability based on the principle of equity	237
2. Concurrence of liabilities	241
3. Organisational fault of a hospital	245
4. Grounds for hospital's liability	250
5. Insurer's liability	256
6. Grounds and prerequisites for compensation claims	261
II. Establishment of causal nexus and damage	265
7. Contributory negligence of the injured and refusal of treatment	265
8. Prerequisites for compensation and experiencing no harm	270
9. Proving in medical proceedings	276
10. Hypothetical consent and legally relevant damage	280
11. Hypothetical consent and scope of duty to inform	284
12. Duty to inform and legally relevant damage	289
13. Hypothetical consent and lack of information	296
III. Standards of health care services	304
14. The highest standard available	304
15. Average standard	307
IV. Childbirth as source of liability	311
16. Birth of a disabled child	311
17. Liability for costs of maintaining a child	318
18. Constitutionality of classifying a child as damage	326
19. Costs of maintaining a child as damage	333
20. Birth as damage – wrongful life	342

Chapter V

Procreation	347
1. Sterilisation of disabled persons	349
2. Artificial heterologous insemination.....	354
3. Status of human body	358
4. Substitute maternity	365
5. Limits of duty to protect human dignity.....	369
6. Status of human gametes	376
7. Penal protection of a child during labour	381

Chapter VI

End of life	389
1. Living will.....	391
2. Doctor's duty to provide aid	396
3. General duty to provide aid.....	401
4. Persistent therapy	406
5. Discontinuation of nutrition in vegetative state.....	417
6. Assisted suicide	427
7. Siamese twins separation.....	434

Chapter VII

Other cases	443
I. Problems of transsexuality	445
1. Correction of birth certificate	445
2. Sex affiliation as personal right.....	450
3. Declaring the sex of a transsexual person.....	454
II. Problems with financing of health care services.....	458
4. Financing of extra-contractual services	458
III. Other issues	465
5. Experiment on a person being artificially sustained alive	465
6. Psychiatric confidentiality.....	470

List of rulings	475
------------------------------	------------

Index	479
--------------------	------------