

Contents

Acknowledgments	v
Chapter 1	Surveying the Terrains of Corporate Power 1
I The Organizational Terrain 13
Chapter 2	From Oligarchy to Corporate Governance: The End of the Old Boys' Network? 14
Chapter 3	Strategic Control and Intercorporate Enterprises 41
Chapter 4	Disorganized Capitalism and Transnational Finance Capital 66
II The Spatial Terrain 87
Chapter 5	Westward Drift: The Shifting Geography of Corporate Power 88
Chapter 6	Continental Connections: Toward a North American Corporate Elite? 106
Chapter 7	The Canadian Corporate Elite in the Global Power Structure 127
III The Hegemonic Terrain 153
Chapter 8	Consolidating a Neoliberal Policy Bloc with Murray Shaw 154
Chapter 9	Integrating Corporate and University Governance for a Globalizing World with James B. Beaton 180

IV Conclusion 199
Chapter 10 Corporate Power and Neoliberal Democracy 200
Appendix 1: Internet Resources 219
Appendix 2: A Note on Method 222
Appendix 3: Corporate Names and Abbreviations 226
Notes 231
References 260
Index 275