

Focus: Law and Art in the Aftermath

Steven Howe and Laura Petersen

Foreword: Law and Art in the Aftermath — 199

Eliza Garnsey

The Right(s) to Remain: Art, Asylum and Political Representation in Australia — 205

Clotilde Pégorier and Lars Waldorf

Dis-Affective Justice in Abderrahmane Sissako's Bamako (2006) — 229

Connal Parsley

Contemporary Art in the Aftermath of Legal Positivism: The 'Other' Contract Art as Material Jurisprudence — 247

Paul Gough

'NO GO': Artists, Trespass and the Aftermath of Occupation — 271

Research

Sidia Fiorato

Dystopian Images of Law and Visual Performances of Identity in Suzanne Collins' The Hunger Games — 293

Dale Barleben

Books, Broadcasters and the BBC: The Conversations Among British Modern Literature, Media and the Law — 319

Chiara Battisti

Falling Man* and the Aesthetics of Terrorism — 347