

DIGITALIZATION AND ANTITRUST

Josef Bejček : Sustainability of “Traditional Antitrust” under the Challenge of “Sustainability” and Digitization	9
Václav Šmejkal : Abuse of Dominance and the DMA – Differing Objectives or Prevailing Continuity?	33
Ondřej Blažo : Efficiencies under the Digital Markets Act – Is There Space for the Rule of Reason?	53
Ana Pošćić, Adrijana Martinović : The Interplay between the Essential Facility Doctrine and the Digital Markets Act: Implications to Big Data	71
Rastislav Funta : Relationships between Platforms and Retailers (on the Example of Amazon)	83
Miroslav Jakab : Google Android: Behavioural Theories of Harm in the Light of New Judgments and Regulatory Tools	95
Jaroslav Denemark : Strengthening the European Union by Regulating the Digital Single Market	107

VARIA

Miklós Király : Specific Performance – and the International Unification of Sales Law	127
Marie Karfíková, Tomáš Šipoš : The Legal Framework of the Mandatory Cap on Market Revenues for Electricity Producers and the Solidarity Contribution in the Czech Republic and Slovakia	139
Tomáš Friedel : An Ethically Indifferent Code of Ethics? Analysis of the Character of the Czech Bar Association’s Code of Ethics	155

REVIEW

Miroslav Sedláček : Frintová, Dita. Mezitímní a částečné rozhodnutí ve světle judikatury a evropské komparace [Interlocutory and Partial Decisions in the Context of Case Law and European Comparisons]	173
--	-----