

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. INTRODUCTION	11
1.1 MEDIEVAL BRacteates.....	11
1.2 PURPOSE, METHOD AND LIMITATIONS	13
1.3 DISPOSITION.....	15
2. BASICS ABOUT MEDIEVAL COINAGE.....	17
2.1 THE MEDIEVAL ECONOMY AND MEDIEVAL COINS.....	17
2.1.1 Distribution of goods and services in the medieval economy.....	17
2.1.2 Medieval coins	20
2.1.3 Coin debasements.....	24
2.1.4 Supply and demand for coins as a medium of exchange	27
2.2 HISTORICAL BACKGROUND.....	31
3. LONG-LIVED AND SHORT-LIVED COINS.....	39
3.1 LONG-LIVED COINS.....	39
3.1.1 Geographical extension.....	39
3.1.2 Imitations and international currencies	41
3.2 SHORT-LIVED COINS.....	44
3.2.1 Geographical extension.....	44
3.2.2 Conditions for short-lived coins	45
3.2.3 Geographical currency constraint within the city-borders.....	47
3.2.4 Efficiency of re-coinage	48
3.2.5 Monitoring and enforcement.....	49
3.2.6 Stock of silver and imitations	53
3.3 METHODS TO IDENTIFY COINAGE SYSTEMS.....	53
3.4 COIN DEBASEMENTS AND OTHER CONSEQUENCES.....	55
3.4.1 The choice between re-coinage and debasement	55
3.4.2 Function of coins when re-coinage	57
3.4.3 Monetary tax and ingots	58
3.4.4 Inhibited trade and substitute taxes	60
4. FUNCTION AND CIRCULATION AREAS OF BRacteates	62
4.1 WHY WERE BRacteates MINTED?	62
4.1.1 The first bracteates	62
4.1.2 Bracteates as short-lived coins.....	65
4.2 TWO-FACED COINS AND BRacteates.....	68
4.2.1 Two systems with short-lived coins.....	68
4.2.2 Strong Episcopal mints.....	75
4.3 GEOGRAPHICAL SPREADING OF BRacteates	77

4.4 CIRCULATION AND MONETARY STANDARDS OF BRacteATES.....	84
4.4.1 Regional circulation areas	84
4.4.2 Regional monetary standards	87
5. DEVELOPMENT OF BRacteATES THROUGH TIME	96
5.1 ISSUES AND EXCHANGE FEES.....	96
5.1.1 Frequency of re-coinage	96
5.1.2 Exchange fees.....	97
5.2 SHARED AND CHANGING COINAGE RIGHTS.....	99
5.3 MINTING AUTHORITIES, VOLUME AND CONTINUITY.....	104
5.4 WEIGHT AND FINENESS.....	105
5.5 BRacteATES VIS-À-VIS HALF-BRacteATES AND TWO-FACED PENNIES.....	109
5.6 DIAMETER.....	110
5.7 RELIEF	112
5.8 HOHLPENNIES AS SMALL CHANGE	113
6. MINTING TECHNOLOGY.....	119
6.1 STRIKING OF BRacteATES	119
6.1.1 Organization of the work.....	119
6.1.2 Link to goldsmith's work	123
6.1.3 Different minting technologies.....	127
6.1.4 Simultaneous minting	134
6.2 DENOMINATIONS AND HALVED BRacteATES	137
6.3 WALLETS FOR BRacteATES – BOXES AND BOWLS	140
7. ARTISTIC STYLE AND DESIGN	142
7.1 ARTISTIC DESIGN	142
7.2 MINT MASTERS AND DIE CUTTERS.....	143
7.3 TYPICAL DESIGN FOR DIFFERENT MINTING AUTHORITIES	144
7.3.1 Ecclesiastical minting authorities	145
7.3.2 Emperors and kings.....	148
7.3.3 Laymen.....	167
7.3.4 Cities.....	168
8. CLASSIFICATION AND DATING OF BRacteATES	171
8.1 LEGENDS AND LETTERS	171
8.2 COIN FINDS.....	176
8.3 REGIONAL MONETARY STANDARDS	180
8.4 IMPORTANT LITERATURE FOR CLASSIFYING OF BRacteATES.....	192

9. BRacteates from a Scandinavian perspective.....	193
9.1 DENMARK.....	193
9.2 SWEDEN	198
9.3 NORWAY	209
9.4 COINAGE POLICY AND RE-COINAGE IN SCANDINAVIA	213
9.4.1 Comparison between the Scandinavian currency areas	213
9.4.2 Coinage policy in Sweden.....	215
9.4.3 Coinage policy in Norway	226
9.5 SOME APPLICATIONS WHEN CLASSIFYING SWEDISH BRacteates	231
10. VALUATION AND FORGERIES	236
10.1 VALUATION	236
10.1.1 Classification and reference literature	237
10.1.2 Regional differences.....	237
10.2 FORGERIES.....	239
11. SUMMARY	243
11.1 MEDIEVAL COINS.....	243
11.2 COINAGE POLICIES IN MEDIEVAL EUROPE	244
11.3 BRacteates AS SHORT-LIVED COINS	247
11.4 TECHNOLOGY, DESIGN AND CLASSIFICATION	251
11.5 SCANDINAVIA	252
APPENDIX	255
LIST WITH LITERATURE TO CLASSIFY BRacteates	255
A. Germany	255
B. Scandinavia	259
C. Eastern Europe.....	259
ABBREVIATIONS: BRacteate LITERATURE	260
ABBREVIATIONS: OTHER LITERATURE	261
REFERENCES	263
Written sources	263
Other sources.....	272
PICTURE REGISTER.....	273
INDEX – KEY TERMS.....	275
INDEX – GEOGRAPHICAL REGIONS.....	278
INDEX – CITIES AND MINTS	280
PLATES	285

INTRODUCTION

MAPS

Map 1.	German mints in the Carolingian (800–919) and imperial (920–1140) periods.....	34
Map 2.	German mints in the early Staufer-era (1140–97) distributed in minting authorities.	37
Map 3.	Long-lived and short-lived coinage systems in Europe 1140-1270.	40
Map 4.	German mints that mainly struck bracteates and two-faced coins 1140–1270.....	70
Map 5.	Spreading of the bracteate technology 1120–1270.....	78
Map 6.	Mints in northern and central Germany that struck bracteates 1130–1290, distributed in minting authorities.	79
Map 7.	Mints in southern Germany and northern Switzerland that struck bracteates 1180–1290, distributed in minting authorities.	80
Map 8.	Mints in eastern Germany and eastern Europe that struck bracteates 1140–1290, distributed in minting authorities.	81
Map 9.	Mints in Thuringia that struck bracteates 1130–1290, distributed in minting authorities.	82
Map 10.	Coin hoards with coins struck in Hildesheim between 900 and 1300.....	85
Map 11.	Regional monetary standards for bracteates in the period 1140–1270.....	88
Map 12.	Monetary standards and coin hoards for bracteates at the mint Quedlinburg 1140–1260.	94
Map 13.	Hohlpennies and hohlhellers in Germany 1300–1550.....	114
Map 14.	Hohlpennies and hohlhellers in Thuringia 1330–1550.	117
Map 15.	Currency areas in Sweden until 1250.....	200
Map 16.	Mints in Scandinavia that struck bracteates 1146–1510.	208

FIGURES

Figure 1.	Reciprocity	17
Figure 2.	Central redistribution.....	18
Figure 3.	Market principle.....	19
Figure 4.	Increased demand for coins as a result of division of labour.....	29
Figure 5.	Distribution of silver value after recurrent coin renewals. Percent	49
Figure 6.	Life-cycle for short-lived coins.....	52
Figure 7.	Coin hoards in Thuringia 1050–1550	86
Figure 8.	Weight of bracteates in some German mints 1130–1350	106
Figure 9.	Weights of different coin types in Halberstadt 1000–1260.....	110
Figure 10.	Diameter of bracteates in some German mints 1130–1350.....	111
Figure 11.	Thickness of bracteates for different combinations of weight (g) and diameter (mm)	122
Figure 12.	Minting technologies A and B	126
Figure 13.	Minting technologies C and D	126
Figure 14.	The force translated through the soft material for different minting technologies	129
Figure 15.	Effects on the edge of the bracteate when using a cap or a case	130

Figure 16. Effects on the silver flans at simultaneous minting.....	136
Figure 17. The development of fine weight in one mark pennies in Sweden 1180–1520.....	206

TABLES

Table 1. Characteristics of different phases in a cycle of debasements according to the empirical literature.....	25
Table 2. Distribution of German mints in minting authorities 1140–1260.....	38
Table 3. Similarities and differences between long-lived and short-lived coins.....	41
Table 4. Methods to identify short-lived and long-lived coinage systems.....	54
Table 5. Re-coinage vs. debasement as a monetary tax.....	56
Table 6. Characteristics of short-lived two-faced coins and bracteates.....	73
Table 7. Link between the number of hoards, new local markets and new mints in Thuringia 1138–1291.	87
Table 8. Different monetary standards for bracteates in Germany.	89
Table 9. German hoards with bracteates and concentration of dominating monetary standard. ..	90
Table 10. Minting authorities and continuity in Thuringia 1138–1291.	104
Table 11. Silver fineness in German bracteates with different monetary standards 1140–1295.	107
Table 12. Weight and fineness of north-German bracteates 1225-1492.	108
Table 13. Halved bracteates in German coin hoards.....	139
Table 14. Attributes for different minting authorities on bracteates.....	145
Table 15. Titles of coin issuers and their abbreviations.....	173
Table 16. Legends on German bracteates.	173
Table 17. Legends on the edge of hohlpennies from Thuringia in the 14 th and 15 th centuries.....	176
Table 18. Chronological classification of bracteates from Saxony 1120–1315.	184
Table 19. Chronological classification of hohlpennies from Thuringia 1335–1465.	189
Table 20. Exchange rate between mark Cologne silver and mark pennies west of Öresund 1230–1315.	196
Table 21. Classification and purchasing power for different regions.....	238