

Table of Contents

Abbreviations	viii
Table of Cases	xiii
Table of Legislation	xxi
PART I: LIABILITY FOR NONFEASANCE	1
1. Introduction	3
2. What is 'Nonfeasance'?	5
3. Theoretical Justifications for Distinguishing between Feasance and Nonfeasance	9
4. Liability for Nonfeasance in Continental European Private Law	29
5. Liability for Nonfeasance in English Private Law	51
6. Towards a More Consistent Approach	75
PART II: GRANTING A CLAIM TO THE INTERVENER	79
7. The Different Measures of Recovery and their Terminology	81
8. Theoretical Arguments against Granting a Remedy to the Intervener	84
9. Theoretical Arguments in Favour of Granting a Remedy to the Intervener	91
10. The Continental Doctrine of ' Negotiorum Gestio '	99
11. The Position in English Law	111
12. Towards a General Principle: Using the Existing Doctrines?	164
13. Towards a New General Principle	175
EPILOGUE	187
Epilogue	189
Select Bibliography	192
Index	199