

Contents

Contents 7

1 Introduction 9

2 State Interference in the Views of Economists 11

3 Typology of State Interventions 17

3.1 State as an Economic Entity 17

3.2 Binary Intervention..... 23

3.3 Triangular Interventions 25

3.3.1 Price Regulation 25

3.3.2 Regulation of the Product 29

4 Market Failures and Possibilities to Solve Them 32

4.1 Imperfect Competition 34

4.1.1 Monopoly and Inefficiency 38

4.1.2 Natural Monopoly 40

4.1.3 Public Policy Toward Monopoly..... 44

4.2 Externalities 45

4.2.1 The Use of Taxes and Subsidies in Solving the Problem of Externalities. 51

4.2.2 Environmental Standards..... 53

4.2.3 Environmental Subsidy..... 54

4.2.4 Tradable Pollution Permits..... 55

4.3 Public Goods 57

4.4 Inequality 65

4.4.1 Measuring Inequality 65

4.4.2 Role of the Government in Redistributing Income 71

4.4.3 Policies to Reduce Poverty..... 73

5 State Interventions in the International Trade 75

5.1	Barriers to Entry in Foreign Markets.....	79
5.1.1	Tariff Barriers.....	79
5.1.2	Non-tariff Barriers.....	85
5.2	Export Promotion.....	85
5.3	Support of Underdeveloped Industries	87
6	Taxes as a Form of State Ingerence	95
6.1	The development of Views on Taxes	97
6.2	Requirements for a tax system	100
6.2.1	Tax Fairness/Equity.....	101
6.2.2	Tax Efficiency	103
6.3	Tax Incidence and Transfer	109
7	Public Expenditures as a Form of State Ingerence	118
8	Government Failures	127
9	Conclusion	133
10	Literature	137