

Detailed Contents

Preface to the second edition	v
Preface to the first edition	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Guide to the book.....	xviii
Guide to the Online Resource Centre.....	xx
Authors' Introduction	xxiii

Part 1 Choosing Law

1

1	Choosing law	3
	First steps	3
	Choosing a college	6
	The variety of law degrees available	7
	Other routes to a law degree	14
	Completing UCAS applications	14
	Preparing for an interview	15
	Student life	17
	The organization of study time	18
	How hard to work	18
2	English law and the English courts	21
	English law and the English courts	21
	Common law	21
	Court structure	22
	Precedent in the English courts	24
	Legislation	27
	The divisions of law	28
	Criminal courts	31
	The civil trial	32
	The lawyers	35
	Useful legal terms	36

3	Current issues in law	39
	Access to the profession	39
	The cost of qualification	40
	The changing face of the professions	41
	Legal aid	41
	The provision of legal services	42
	The electronic revolution	43
	How the future affects barristers	44
	What of the generalist practitioner?	46
	Services provided by lawyers	47
4	The way law is taught	49
	Lecturers, seminars, and other methods of teaching	49
	Lectures	50
	Seminars, tutorials, problem classes	64
5	Varieties of law teaching.....	69
	Other methods of teaching and learning law	69
	The case method	69
	What is clinical legal education?	70
	Developments in skills teaching	75
	Interviewing and negotiation	78
	Mooting, mock trials, and role playing	78
	Teaching through computers	81
	Alternatives to lectures	81
	Distance learning and part-time degrees	82
	Part 2 Studying Law	85
6	The law library and the Internet	87
	Finding legal source materials	87
	The law library	87
	Finding and using law reports	89
	Finding and using legislation	94
	Textbooks in the law library	96
	Journals and periodicals	96
	Bibliographic sources and similar works	97
	Electronic sources	101
	Using the library and legal databases for research	103
7	The sources of legal study.....	109
	Choosing legal source materials	109
	Primary sources	110
	Secondary sources	121
	The Internet as a source	127
	General approach	127

8	Preparing written work.....	131
	Preparing essays and projects	131
	Answering law questions	132
	Preparing written work	137
	Presentation of essays	138
	Preparing substantial pieces of work	140
9	Advice on completing coursework.....	149
	Matters to be considered	149
	Preparation	149
	Planning your answer	153
	Writing the coursework	155
	Oral presentations	170
	Group work	173
10	Citation of legal sources and plagiarism.....	177
	Authority of sources	177
	Reliability of Internet resources	178
	Citation	178
	Members of the judiciary	185
	The correct use of quotations	186
	The correct use of footnotes	187
	Creating a bibliography	187
	Plagiarism	187
11	Undergraduate examinations.....	193
	Law and law exams	193
	Assessment of law examinations	194
	Different types of examination	197
	Revision for examinations	202
	Sitting the examination	205
	What is within your control	206
	Those matters lying outside your control	209
	Planning ahead	209
12	Answering degree-level examination questions	217
	Answering law examination questions	217
	Types of questions	217
	Problem questions	218
	Essay questions	234
	Further preparation for examinations	249

Part 3	Working in the Law	251
13	Becoming a solicitor	253
	What is a solicitor?	253
	The routes to qualification as a solicitor	255
	The Legal Practice Course	261
	Graduate Diploma in Law course (formerly the Common Professional Examination)	263
	List of topics of which knowledge is essential before embarking on the Legal Practice Course	265
	Obtaining a training contract	268
	Choosing a firm	270
	What to expect from a training contract	271
	The financial side of qualifying	273
	The availability of training places	273
	Preparation for a training place interview	274
	Alternatives to a training contract	275
14	Becoming a barrister	277
	The daily life of a barrister in chambers	277
	The Bar Professional Training Course (until Autumn 2010 the BVC) as a qualification	280
	Qualifying as a barrister	281
	Pupillage	285
15	Alternative careers in law	291
	What happens to law students?	291
	What about non-graduate entry to the profession?	292
	Other careers available	296
	Assessment centres	297
	Interviews	298
16	The postgraduate study of law	301
	Why engage in postgraduate study?	301
	Empirical research	302
	Traditional legal scholarship	303
	Other fields of research	303
	Becoming involved in legal research: taking a postgraduate degree in law	304
	Continuing professional education	308

Appendix 1311

Sample law report 311

Appendix 2327

Sample Act of Parliament 327

Index..... 359