

Contents

Translator's Introduction: A Shock to Think Together	vii
Thomas Lamarre
1. The Question of Common Sense	3
Does Philosophy Confront Ignorance?	3
The Defeat of Common Sense	9
Problematizing Abstraction	17
Civilizing Modernity?	25
2. In the Grip of Bifurcation	35
The Bifurcation of Nature	35
The Trick of Evil	43
The Importance of Facts	48
The Art of Conventions	56
3. A Coherence to Be Created	65
We Require to Understand	65
Dare to Speculate	70
Whiteheadian Societies	79
Heirs to Whitehead?	89
4. What Can a Society Do?	101
Thinking through the Milieu	101
Finding More	109
Caring for Analogies	120
Living Beings and Life	129

5. A Metamorphic Universe	139
Welding Imagination and Common Sense	139
In Praise of the Middle Voice	150
Tentacular Affects	159
Living in the Ruins	171

Notes	181
--------------	------------

Bibliography	193
---------------------	------------