Pascale Niegri. Particular thanks go to Bastien for spontaneously organizing my completely productive writing workshop, a weekly exchange held online at writingbetweenbooks.com. Had it not been for these intense writing sessions, I would probably have taken at least another year to finish the manuscript. I would also like to thank Francesco Fedaro, with whom I had many fruitful exchanges in New York during this process.

I spent six months during my doctoral work at the University of Amsterdam's Research Institute for International Law and Global Studies.
