

CONTENTS

Preface vii

Acknowledgements x

Introduction: The fall of traditional media, the rise of nonprofit newsrooms, and the fight to save local news 1

1 What happened to traditional journalism? 23

2 New ways emerge: Blogs, digital start-ups, and the rise of nonprofit newsrooms 50

3 Owners, investors, and donors 74

4 Revenue streams 93

5 Advances in digital tools and innovation for news 119

6 Universities increasing role in journalism 133

7 Public media, collaborations, and digital start-ups 152

8 Advocacy, activists, and solutions 167

9 Maintaining journalism standards and new ethical challenges and perils	184
Selected Bibliography	201
Appendix A: Starting up a nonprofit newsroom	204
Appendix B: How to keep up with the changes in journalism	216
Index	221