

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	vii
List of contributors	viii
Introduction	1
PART I
Challenges in journalism education	9
1 A changed landscape: Re-imagining journalism education ‘post-pandemic’ Karen Fowler-Watt	11
2 Broadening horizons: How student perspectives can help meet journalism’s challenges Andrew Bissell	23
3 A “hotchpotch of conflicting schools”: The problems plaguing journalism education in the 2020s Graham Majin	36
4 Sports journalism’s dilemma: All about celebrating the spectacle? Max Mauro	48
5 Why politics and public affairs still matter David Brine	62

vi Contents

- 6 Media literacy and/in journalism education: Learning from (media) action 70
Julian McDougall

PART II

New directions in journalism education 87

- 7 Inclusive approaches to news 89
Daniel Henry and De-Graft Mensah

- 8 Integrating journalism education and the sustainability agenda 100
Fiona Cownie and Michael Sunderland

- 9 From skillset to mindset: The re-conceptualisation of entrepreneurial journalism in higher education 115
Jo Royle

- 10 My story: Journalism for and by young people to prevent the recruitment of children and teenagers by non-state armed groups in Colombia 130
Mathew Charles

- 11 Better safe than sorry: Preparing journalism students for a dangerous world 146
Jaron Murphy

- Reflections 161

- Index* 175