

Contents

About the Contributors	vii
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction, Edgar M. Bronfman	xv
1 Central and Eastern Europe: The Global Context, William E. Griffith	1
2 Eastern Europe and the West in the Perspective of Time, Vojtech Mastny	12
3 The Economies and Trade of Eastern Europe, Paul Marer	37
4 Technology Transfer to Eastern Europe: Paradoxes, Policies, Prospects, Angela Stent	74
5 The Soviet Union and Eastern Europe: New Prospects and Old Dilemmas, John Van Oudenaren	102
6 The Soviets, the Warsaw Pact, and the Eastern European Militaries, Dale R. Herspring	130
7 Human Rights and Civil Society in Eastern Europe, Robert Sharlet	156
8 The Future of Poland: Perestroika or Perpetual Crisis? Sarah Meiklejohn Terry	178
9 Reforming Communist Systems: Lessons from the Hungarian Experience, Charles Gati	218
10 Czechoslovakia Between East and West, H. Gordon Skilling	241
11 Yugoslavia: Worsening Economic and Nationalist Crisis, Viktor Meier	263
12 Conservatism and Nationalism in the Balkans: Albania, Bulgaria, and Romania, J. F. Brown	283
13 The German Democratic Republic, William E. Griffith	314
14 West German Policy Toward Central and Eastern Europe, Wolfgang Berner and William E. Griffith	338

15	French Policy Toward Central and Eastern Europe, Dominique Moïsi	353
16	The United States and Eastern Europe: A Window of Opportunity, Michael Mandelbaum	366
17	U.S. and Western Policy—New Opportunities for Action, Mark Palmer	388
18	Central and Eastern Europe, Perestroika , and the Future of the Cold War, Seweryn Bialer	401
	Index	439