

Table of Contents

Greek Art

Philippe Bruneau

- 9 General Introduction
- 11 Background to the study of Greek sculpture
- 18 Statuary and relief
- 22 Art and craftsmanship
- 25 How statues were used

The Archaic Period

- 30 Small figures
- 32 Large statues
- 42 Architectural sculpture
- 52 The sculpture of the Acropolis, Athens

The Classical Period

- 57 "The invention of art" and the question of lost originals
- 63 Five master sculptors
- 69 Themes and styles of Classical statuary: realism and idealism
- 73 Architectural sculpture
- 82 The freestanding relief
- 85 The art of the goldsmith
- 88 Greek sculpture outside Greece

The Hellenistic and Imperial Periods

- 95 Hellenistic sculpture
- 100 The sanctuary at Delphi
- 102 The development of the portrait
- 106 Sculpture in the home
- 108 The Imperial period

The Art of the Etruscans

Mario Torelli

- 115 The historical background to Etruscan art
- 117 The birth of figurative art: from the geometric style to Daedalic sculpture
- 120 The flowering of Ionian art of the Archaic period
- 126 The "courtly" austerity of the oligarchies
- 130 The late-Classical renaissance
- 136 The Etruscan Hellenistic style in the Italic koine
- 142 The process of Romanization

The Roman World

Xavier Barral i Altet

- 147 Introduction

The New Functions of Sculpture

- 150 Architecture and sculpture
- 154 Originals and copies
- 156 Public sculpture and official propaganda
- 160 Iconography
- 163 The house and its decoration

Roman Realism

- 167 The portrait and its development
- 172 Sarcophagi and funerary sculpture
- 175 The historical relief
- 177 Religion and politics

Working with the Raw Material

- 181 Patrons and sculptors
- 183 The capital
- 185 Materials and colour
- 187 Bronze
- 189 Silver and ceramics

The Development of Roman Sculpture

- 193 The Republican era
- 195 The Augustan myth
- 198 Imperial art under the Flavians and Antonines
- 204 Changes during the third century

Originality in the Provinces

- 207 Mare Nostrum
- 214 The Iberian peninsula
- 218 Gaul and Germany
- 224 The outlying regions

The Decline of Empire

- 227 Art under Constantine
- 230 The Christianized sarcophagus
- 233 Constantinople
- 237 Conclusion
- 239 Picture Credits