

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| PREFACE | ix |
| 1. COMMUNIST THEORY AND PROGRAM | 1 |
| Historical antecedents 3; Marx and Engels 8; Failed expectations of Marxists 15; The Second International and its collapse 18 | |
| 2. LENINISM | 21 |
| Russia's revolutionary tradition 23; Lenin 28; 1917 34; Lenin's dictatorship 39; Failure of "War Communism" 42; Exporting revolution 49 | |
| 3. STALIN AND AFTER | 53 |
| Stalin takes charge 55; Industrialization and collectivization 57; The Great Terror 62; Stalin exploits Russian nationalism 72; Stalin as Lenin's natural heir 73; World War II 74; Khrushchev 78; Decay and collapse 81 | |
| 4. RECEPTION IN THE WEST | 89 |
| The Comintern 91; Western Communists and fellow travelers 97; Communism and Nazism 103; Stalin's dual foreign policy 107; The Cold War 108; Post-World War II Communism in the West 110 | |
| 5. THE THIRD WORLD | 115 |
| Common features 117; Comintern promotes alliances with nationalists 118; Mao and Maoism 122; Post-Stalinist Soviet policy in the Third World 127; China's "Great Leap Forward" and "Cultural Revolution" 128; Pol Pot's Cambodia 132; Allende's Chile 135; Castro's Cuba 138; Mengistu's Ethiopia 142; Terrorism 143; Conclusions 144 | |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 6. LOOKING BACK | 145 |
| Inherent contradictions of Communism as cause of its repeated failures 147; Role of ideology 155; The costs of Communism 158 | |
| NOTES | 161 |
| SUGGESTIONS FOR FURTHER READING | 166 |
| INDEX | 170 |
| DISCUSSION QUESTIONS | 176 |