

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
Notes on This Edition	2
How This Book Is Organized	2

Part I: The 2e Basics

Chapter 1	Twice-Exceptionality	5
	Evolving Definitions and Perceptions
	The Story of Neil	5
	Twice-Exceptional: The Term and Its History	7
	Origins of Twice-Exceptionality in Education	7
	Legislation Paves the Way	10
	In the 21st Century	11
	A New Definition: A New Basis for Action	13
	The Story of Neil, Continued	14
	Seeing 2e Through a New Lens	17
Chapter 2	The Yellows and the Blues of Twice-Exceptionality	19
	The First “e”: Gifted and Giftedness, or What We Call “Yellow”	19
	Historical Perspectives on Giftedness	20
	Characteristics of Giftedness	25
	The Second “e”: Differences, Disabilities, or What We Call “Blue”	28
	Specific Learning Disabilities	28
	Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder	32
	Autism Spectrum Disorders	34
	Generalized Anxiety Disorder	38
Chapter 3	Complexities of Green	43
	Twice-Exceptional Students: Three Groups	43
	2e Students Identified by Gifts With Undiagnosed Disabilities	44
	2e Students Identified Only for Special Programming or Accommodations	46
	Students Not Identified With Either High Abilities or Special Needs	46
	Dynamics of a High Abilities/Learning Disabilities Mix	47
	Increased Intensity	47
	Trait Inhibition	48
	Emergence of Additional Traits	48
	The Paradoxical Needs of a 2e Learner	49
	A Very Green Tale: The Story of Olivia	50

Chapter 4 The Case for Strength-Based, Talent-Focused Education 53

What 2e Students Need

 Research Pointing to the Benefits of Starting With Strengths 53

 New Evidence for Using a Strength-Based Approach 56

 Growth 57

 Factors Contributing to Growth 60

Part II: Neurodiversity

The Complex Minds of 2e Learners

Chapter 5 2e Students and Learning 67

 An Information Processing Model: Explaining Learning 69

 Attention, Sensory Input, and Sensory Storage 70

 Working Memory/Short-Term Memory 71

 Passing From Working Memory to Long-Term Memory (Encoding and Retrieval) ... 72

 Long-Term Memory 73

 Acting on Information: Production/Expression 75

 Executive Function and Self-Regulation Skills 75

 When Learning Becomes Difficult 76

 Problems With Attention and Sensory Input and Storage 76

 Working Memory/Short-Term Memory Difficulties 78

 Problems Passing Information From Working Memory to Long-Term Memory 78

 Long-Term Memory Problems 80

 Problems With Production 80

 Executive Functioning Problems 81

 Issues With Anxiety 82

Chapter 6 Multiple Intelligences and Personality Preferences 83

 Multiple Intelligences 83

 Applying Information About Multiple Intelligences 89

 Personality Preferences 89

 Personality Preferences and the Twice-Exceptional Learner 90

 Four Personality Patterns 91

 Applying Information About Personality Preferences 95

Chapter 7 Factors Leading to Misidentification
 and the Perils of Misinterpretation 101

 What Is the Problem? 101

 Blaine’s Story 104

 Looking at the Issues 107

 Contemplating Problems From Diverse Perspectives 108

Emotional Development of Gifted Students	111
Creative or Disruptive? That Is the Question	112
IQ Testing and the Use of Subtest Indices and Scores	113
Attention Issues and High-Ability Students: Cause or Effect?	116
Excessive Engagement: Passions or Obsessions?	117
Understanding Social Context and Emotional Issues	118

Part III: Comprehensive Programming

Chapter 8 Identifying 2e Students in Educational Settings	123
Searching for Blue: Challenges and Practices for the Identification of Learning Disabilities and Other Special Education Needs in Gifted Students	124
RtI and Identifying the Disabilities of Twice-Exceptional Students	124
Why RtI Might Not Be the Best Solution	126
Collecting Evidence: Understanding the Problem	129
Searching for Yellow: Challenges and Practices for the Identification of Gifts and Talents in Special Education Populations	129
A Priori Identification	132
Dynamic Identification: Using Authentic Activities to Tap Potential	136
Chapter 9 Elements of Strength-Based Plans for 2e Students	141
Programming for Green
Critical Factors Grounding Successful Program Development	142
Does It Provide a Psychologically Safe Environment?	142
Does It Respect the Need for More Time?	142
Does It Take Into Account the Asynchronous Development of 2e Students?	143
Does It Foster Opportunities to Forge Positive Relationships?	143
Does It Incorporate a Strength-Based, Talent-Focused Philosophy?	144
Necessary Components for Comprehensive Plans	144
The Talent Centered Model for Twice-Exceptional Students	145
The Model in Action	150
Least Restrictive Environment, Individual Educational Plans, and 504 Plans	151
Chapter 10 Talent Recognition and Development	159
A Rationale for Talent Development	160
Bryan	160
Lessons Learned From Bryan's Story	167
Finding Talent Development Opportunities	169
Placement in Existing Programs	170
Special Opportunities	172

Mentorships	172
Special Programs and Schools	174

Part IV: Strategies That Work

Chapter 11 Creating a Strength-Based, Dually Differentiated Classroom	185
What Is Dual Differentiation?	185
What Is a Strength-Based Approach?	187
Leveraging Strengths to Support Skill Development	188
Using Strengths to Encourage Active Participation in Learning and Productivity ...	189
Revisiting Olivia, Blaine, and Melanie	190
Chapter 12 Classroom Strategies for Success	193
Intellectual, Physical, and Emotional Environments
The Intellectual Environment	194
Using Appropriate Entry Points	194
Performance-Based Assessments With Differentiated Exit Points	199
Investigating Authentic Problems	201
Engaging Students in Critical and Creative Thinking	203
Modifications to the Physical Learning Environment	204
Strategies to Help With Hypersensitivity and Other Distractions	205
Accommodating the Need for Movement	205
Seating and Grouping Arrangements	206
Providing Resources	207
Creating a Supportive Emotional Environment	207
Create Learning Communities	208
Teach Executive Function Skills: Time Management and Organization	209
Teach Stress Management, Conflict Resolution, and Anger Management Skills	210
Use Authentic Contexts for the Development of Social Awareness, Social Skills, and Building Friendships	213
Chapter 13 When Learning Breaks Down	217
Modifications and Accommodations
Focusing and Sustaining Attention	219
Accessing Information With Limited Reading Skills	219
Accommodations to Address Deficits in Working Memory	222
Manipulating Information Mentally	222
Organizing for Production	223
Strategies for Remembering Details and Noncontextual Information	226
Mnemonic Devices	226
Guided Imagery	226

Active Learning	227
Overlearning	227
Using Technology to Compensate for Weak Basic Skills	228
Chapter 14 A Community of Support	233
Rose	234
Social-Emotional Issues	237
How Parents Can Help	239
Elementary School	239
Middle School	242
Secondary Level	243
How Counselors Can Help	245
Community Resources	247
Post-Secondary Education	247
Final Thoughts	251
References	253
Appendices
Appendix A: Project High Hopes Program Description	269
Appendix B: WISC Changes	273
Appendix C: Reflective RTI	275
Appendix D: Presenting Behaviors Checklist	281
Appendix E: Sample Structured Interview Form	285
Appendix F: Project High Hopes Identification Activities	287
About the Authors	297
Index	299