

CONTENTS

Foreword	xi
Explanatory Note – Local Government and the Courts	xii
The Author	xiii
Table of Statutes	xiv
Table of Statutory Instruments	xxii
Table of Cases	xxiii
Chapter 1 – What is a Highway?	1
Definition of a highway	2
Bridges	3
Cul-de-sacs or dead ends	3
The right to roam	4
Meaning of ‘road’	4
Meaning of ‘street’	5
Unadopted highways	6
Special roads, motorways and trunk roads	6
New roads – concession agreements	8
Private ways	9
Footpaths and footways: pavements	9
Cycles	10
Roads used as public paths, byways, restricted byways	10
Public paths	11
Classification of highways – footpaths, bridleways and carriageways	11
Walkways	12
Summary of definitions	13
Chapter 2 – Creation of Highways	15
Dedication by owner	15
Use as of right	16
Use without interruption	17
Evidence of maintenance of the way	17
The presumption of dedication and the twenty year rule	18
No dedication despite long vehicular usage	20
Belief of users	20
Evidence that no dedication intended	21
Limited dedications	22
Creation of highway by statute	24
Agreements with builders for laying out new estates – Highways Act 1980, section 38	26
Adoption under section 37	28
Declaration of a highway after street works	29

The width of highways	29
Fences and verges	31
Hedges	33
Ditches	34
Gates	34
New street by-laws	35
Width of rights of way – statutory measurements	35
Unenclosed land	36
Roadside waste	36
Village greens	38
Chapter 3 – Responsibility for Maintenance of Highways	39
The creation of Highway Authorities	39
Agent Highway Authorities	40
Contracting out	40
Which highways are maintainable at public expense?	41
Roads on local authority housing estates	41
Enforcement of the duty to maintain	43
Damages for failure to maintain	45
Recovery of maintenance expenditure due to extraordinary traffic	46
Highway physically destroyed	48
Privately maintainable highways	49
Powers and duties of persons liable to maintain highways	50
Highways repairable by no-one	51
Unadopted highways – liability for accidents	53
Chapter 4 – Liability of the Highway Authority for Accidents on the Highway	55
The standard of maintenance expected	55
Degree of care to be taken by drivers	56
What must a road user prove to succeed in a claim for damages?	56
The ‘special defence’ for Highway Authorities	57
Contractors	58
Cases on breach of the statutory duty to maintain	59
The character of the highway and the traffic expected to use it	59
Pavement tripping	60
Flooding cases	61
Mud on the highway	63
Warning signs	63
Frequency of inspection	64
Importance of factual evidence at trial	65
Negligence: poor performance of work in building or repairing the highway	65

Failure to exercise powers	67
Traffic signs	68
Nuisance	70
Choice of cause of action	71

Chapter 5 – Ownership of Highways, Public Rights of Passage and Obstruction of the Highway	73
Meaning of ‘vest’	74
Supporting structures – ownership	76
Fencing highways	77
The rights of the adjoining owner	78
Owner’s access to the highway	79
The right of public passage	81
Direct action to deal with obstructions	81
Highway to be used for passage and not for other purposes	83
Demonstrations and processions	84
Travellers	88
Offences of public nuisance and obstruction	89
Shops extending onto the footway: street traders	91
Other activities on the highway	96
Regulations prohibiting unnecessary obstruction	96
The powers of the Highway Authorities to maintain and protect the right of passage	98
The Town Police Clauses Act 1847	100
Car sales and repairs on the highway	101
Building works – licences – scaffolding – skips	101
Trading in the highway	102
Chapter 6 – Maintenance of Highways and Bridges	105
Extent of duty to maintain	107
Snow and ice	107
Drainage	108
Grass cutting	110
Trees – liability of adjoining owners	110
Powers of Highway Authority to deal with dangerous or overhanging trees	111
Trees growing in the highway	113
Trees: power of Highway Authority to plant	114
Street lighting	114
Street furniture	115
Road signs	116
Maintenance of grass verges	116
Bridges, tunnels, embankments, retaining walls	117
Railway and canal bridges	118
Privately maintainable bridges	119

Bridges over highways and underpasses	120
Culverts	121
Powers of entry	122
Chapter 7 – Improvements to Highways and Construction of
New Roads	123
Improvements to highways	123
Safety of pedestrians	124
A power to improve is not a duty	124
Surfacing highways	125
Widening highways: altering levels	125
Improving visibility at junctions	126
Cattle grids	126
Highways over or under rivers and canals	127
Picnic sites	127
Road humps and traffic calming	127
Contributions by developers towards highway works	129
Construction of new highways – statutory procedures	130
Environmental impact assessments	131
Side road orders	132
Acquisition of land – compulsory purchase	133
Human Rights Act 1998	134
Compensation	136
Loss of access: disruption to trade	138
Chapter 8 – Private Roads and Streets	140
Maintenance of unadopted roads	141
The Private Street Works Code	143
First and Second Resolutions	145
Apportionment of expenses	146
Objections determined by the local Magistrates	148
Final apportionment	154
The Advance Payments Code	155
Adoption of private streets	159
Chapter 9 – Works in the Highway	162
The New Roads and Street Works Act 1991	162
Terminology in relation to street works	163
Giving notice of street works and the response of the
Authority	165
Minimising disruption and co-ordinating street works	166
Stricter requirements on Undertakers in certain streets	168
Safety measures	169
Prosecutions under health and safety legislation	170
Completing street works quickly	171

Reinstatement	172
Diversion of traffic	174
Maintenance of apparatus	174
Roads under construction	174
Works carried out by Highway Authorities	175
Street Works Licences	176
Compensation for damage or disruption caused by street works	177
Traffic Management Act 2004	181
Chapter 10 – Traffic Regulation	183
The Road Traffic Act 1988	184
The construction and maintenance of vehicles and their use .	184
Parking and driving off the road	185
The Highway Code	186
Traffic Regulation Orders	186
Inquiries	191
Temporary orders	191
Speed limits	193
Parking places	194
Special occasions, processions, fairs, emergencies	195
Consultation with the police and enforcement of Traffic Orders	196
London	197
Decriminalised parking	197
Orders for the preservation of the amenities of an area	198
Enforcement of orders	199
Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions	200
Usefulness of Traffic Regulation Orders	200
Pedestrianisation	202
Gating orders	204
Transport Act 2000	205
The meaning of ‘road’	206
Chapter 11 – Footpaths, Bridleways and Byways	208
Rights of Way Act 1932	210
National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act 1949	210
Definitive Maps of rights of way	210
Long distance paths	212
Notices deterring the public from using rights of way	212
Countryside Act 1968 – rights of way signs	213
Riding of pedal cycles	214
Dedication of new footpaths or bridleways	214
The Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981	216
Definitive Maps of rights of way	216

Vehicular traffic – restricted byways	217
Continuous review of Definitive Maps and Statements	218
Procedure for making modifications	220
Applications to Surveying Authorities for Modification Orders	221
The standard of proof	222
Extinguishment of unrecorded rights of way	223
The conclusiveness of Definitive Maps – discovery of new evidence	224
Divergence between Definitive Map and Statement	227
Bulls	227
Rights of Way Act 1990	228
Damage to the surface of paths, ploughing out of paths and interference by growing crops	228
Power to enter on land and carry out works	230
Duty to protect rights of way	230
Gates and stiles	231
Maintenance of footpaths and bridleways	232
Chapter 12 – Diversion and Extinguishment of the Highway ...	235
Highways Act 1980 – section 116	237
Sections 118 and 119 of the Highways Act 1980	242
Stopping up and diversion of footpaths and bridleways ..	242
Crime prevention in urban areas and schools	245
Notification of diversions to adjoining owners	246
Acquisition of Land Act 1981 – section 32	247
Town and Country Planning Act 1990 – section 247	247
Stopping up by Secretary of State to enable development to be carried out	247
London	250
Town and Country Planning Act 1990 – sections 257 and 258	250
Stopping up by local planning authority to enable development to be carried out	250
Excavations for minerals – temporary orders	251
Side Road Orders	251
Extinguishment of vehicular rights – pedestrian precincts ..	252
Ministry of Defence land	253
Animal Health Act 1981	253
Exchange of land – straightening the boundaries of the highway	253
Agreements with neighbouring landowners	253
Effect of stopping up on private rights of way	255
Index	257