

| CONTENTS |

- 11 | Introduction to Land Regulation in Central European Countries
(János Ede SZILÁGYI)
- 23 | PART I
- 25 | Human Rights Aspects of the Acquisition of Agricultural Lands With Special
Regard to the ECtHR Practice Concerning the So-Called “Visegrád Countries”, Romania, Slovenia, Croatia, and Serbia (György MARINKÁS)
- 55 | Acquirement of Land Rights by Foreign Investors: An International
Investment Law Perspective (János Ede SZILÁGYI – Bálint KOVÁCS)
- 77 | The European Union’s Legal Framework on the Member State’s Margin of Appreciation in Land Policy – The CJEU’s Case Law After the “KOB” SIA Case
(Ágoston KOROM)
- 91 | PART II
- 93 | Croatia: Agricultural Land as Resource of Interest – Adjustment of Acquisition of Agricultural Land by Foreigners to EU Market Freedoms
(Tatjana JOSIPOVIĆ)
- 127 | Czech Republic: An Open Market Dominated by Large Owners
(Vojtěch VOMÁČKA – Jan LEICHMANN)
- 145 | Hungary: Strict Agricultural Land and Holding Regulations for Sustainable and Traditional Rural Communities (János Ede SZILÁGYI)
- 199 | Poland: An Attempt at a Balance Between the Protection of Family Holding and the Freedoms of the European Union (Paulina LEDWON)
- 219 | Romania: Between Scylla of EU Law and Charybdis of National Interest –
Belated Restrictions in the Land Market (Emőd VERESS)
- 249 | Serbia: Strict Laws, Liberal Practice (Miloš ŽIVKOVIĆ)

- 267 | Slovakia: Open Land Market and No Restrictions
(János Ede SZILÁGYI – Hajnalka SZINEK CSÜTÖRTÖKI)
- 293 | Slovenia: In Search of a Sensitive Balance Between Economic, Social, and Ecological Functions of Agricultural Land and Rural Areas (Franci AVSEC)
- 335 | Conclusions on Cross-border Acquisition of Agricultural
Lands in Certain Central European Countries
(János Ede SZILÁGYI – Hajnalka SZINEK CSÜTÖRTÖKI)