

Table of Contents

Foreword by Bessel van der Kolk, MD	vii
Introduction.....	xi
1. Foundations of Integrative Attachment Family Therapy.....	1
The Four Phases of IAFT.....	5
Case Overview: Matilda	6
Case Overview: Natasha	10
The Power of IAFT	16
2. Connection, Polyvagal Theory, and the Social Engagement System.....	19
The Basis of Connection.....	19
Polyvagal Theory and the Social Engagement System.....	22
Applying Polyvagal Theory in Session	27
Mapping the Autonomic Ladder.....	28
The Social Engagement System	33
The Social Engagement System in Action	41
3. Theraplay, Dyadic Developmental Psychotherapy, and the Autobiographical Narrative.....	43
Theraplay.....	44
Dyadic Developmental Psychotherapy	47
The Autobiographical Narrative	57
4. Preparing for the Work.....	63
Parent Agreement	64
Preparatory Work for IAFT	68
Using the SES Activities in Session.....	77
5. Overview of the Four Phases of IAFT.....	79
Preparatory Work.....	80
First Phase: Focus on the Parent	81
Second Phase: Focus on the Parent-Child Dyad	89

Third Phase: Specialized Focus on the Parent.....	92
Fourth Phase: Focus on the Second Parent	93
Closure.....	93
6. Dyad Assessment.....	95
Marschak Interaction Method and Vagal Match Assessment.....	96
VMA Games	99
Assessing and Observing Patterns of Autonomic Engagement.....	109
7. Working with Parents in Parent-Only Sessions.....	115
Questions for Parental Self-Reflection and Attachment Patterns.....	116
Eliciting Implicit and Explicit Themes	120
Guided Meditation.....	124
8. Working with Children in Dyadic Sessions.....	133
Whitney and Maya: Intake and Parental Attachment History	134
Dyadic Sessions	136
Handling a Child Who Refuses to Talk	141
Fostering Deliberate Dialogue.....	143
Reflection	148
9. Common Challenges to Implementing IAFT.....	151
Common Challenges for the Therapist.....	151
Common Challenges for the Parent.....	153
Common Challenges for the Child	166
Conclusion: Interrupting Intergenerational Trauma.....	175
Appendix A: Speaking for the Child in Session.....	183
Appendix B: The PACE Attitude: A Guide for Parents.....	186
Appendix C: VMA Games: Activity Cards for Parents.....	190
Appendix D: Autonomic Timeline Template	191
References.....	193
About the Authors	195