

Table of Contents

List of Figures	7
Acknowledgments	11
Introduction: Once upon a (Central European) Time Bernd Herzogenrath and Kevin Johnson	13

I (Film) History

1. Barrandov and Its Founder, Miloš Havel Tereza Czesany Dvořáková	43
2. The Concept of Regional Poetics of Cinema Czech Films of the 1920s and Early 1930s Radomír D. Kokeš	67
3. Barrandov's First Fifteen Years Genres, Stars, Germans, and the Nation Kevin B. Johnson	105

II Production History

4. Industrial Authorship and Group Style in Czech Cinema of the 1950s and 1960s Petr Szczepanik	131
5. Marcela Pittermannová: Barrandov Dramaturges as Clients, Brokers, and Patrons Pavel Skopal and Michal Šašek	169
6. Ambitious 'Alien' Beats Perestroika Pražská 5 (1988), Home Video, and Producing Politically Subversive Cinema at Barrandov in the 1980s Jindřiška Bláhová	193

III Individual Directors

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 7. A Documentarian between Genres
Jiří Weiss – A Crossover Auteur at Barrandov
Lucie Česálková | 219 |
| 8. The Loves of a System: Miloš Forman and Barrandov
David Sorfa | 251 |
| 9. Barrandov and Chytilová
Peter Hames | 271 |
| 10. Barrandov Baroque: The Tenacious Artistry of Juraj Herz
Jonathan Owen | 297 |
| 11. Václav Vorlíček: A Dream within a Dream
Bernd Herzogenrath | 317 |
| 12. The 'Vault Films'
Matthew Sweney | 339 |
| Index | 361 |