Contents

14 01 Introduction
Jakub Bachtík – Tereza Johanidesová – Kristina Uhlíková

GENERAL STUDIES

34 02 The Alchemy of Preservation: Postwar Retribution, the State, Personal Ambition and the Early Making of Czechoslovak Socialist Heritage
Cathleen Giustino

64 03 In other words: to make the care for the heritage properties a part of the socialist construction of our state. State heritage care in the Czech lands from the early 1950s until the publication of the Cultural Heritage Properties Act in 1958
Michal Sklenář – Kristina Uhlíková

94 04 Centralisation, bureaucratisation, and categorisation. Preparation of the Law on State Heritage Care in Czechoslovakia, its reception, and efforts to change it after November 1989
Michal Novotný

118 05 Monument preservation in the second half of the 20th century in Austria
Paul Mahringer

140 06 Creating the Conservation System in People's Republic of Croatia, 1945–1960
Marko Špikić

180 07 Monument Protection in Hungary in the Second Half of the Twentieth Century
Pál Lövai

204 08 Monument preservation, cultural policy and urban development in Berlin, Capital of the German Democratic Republic
Alena Janatková

222 09 Reconstruction and Religious Heritage in the Polish People's Republic: Construction of a Polish Patrimony?
Marcus van der Meulen

258 10 "Aesthetic-Charitable View"? Traditionalism in Heritage Conservation in the Czech lands Between 1945 and 1990
Martin Horáček

CASE STUDIES

294 11 The Vltava Cascade and Czech heritage preservation in the 1950s and 1960s
Martin Gaži

318 12 The Palace of Culture in Dresden
Alf Furkert

344 13 Devastation and disappearance of cultural monuments as a consequence of demolition operations in the Czech border region after 1945
David Kovařík

366 14 Once it was here, now it's not... Specifics of the care of sacral furnishings within the Czech lands during the totalitarian era and after its fall
Šárka Radostová

398 Summary
410 Bibliography
440 Index of names
444 Index of locations