

Contents

---

List of contributors	vi
1 Introduction: populism and the politics of human rights Alison Brysk	1
2 Nationalism and conservative populism in the CEE bloc: a political economy and historical institutional approach Oldrich Krpec and Carol Wise	12
3 When do opponents of LGBT human rights mobilize in Europe? Explaining political participation in times of populism Phillip M. Ayoub and Douglas Page	44
4 Mexico: populism versus feminism Kathleen Bruhn	68
5 “Local and national”: the rise of populism and foreign policy as a two-dimensional process in Turkey Şevin Gülfer Sağnıç	87
6 Democratic backsliding and threats to human rights in Duterte’s Philippines Sharmila Parmanand	105
7 Administrative backsliding in India Satyajit Singh	126
8 Gendering populism: the rise of right-wing populism and anti-gender politics in Brazil Vitória Moreira	148
9 Human rights under American populism Gershon Shafir	166
Index	191