

Contents

	Citation Information	vii
	Notes on Contributors	ix
	Women and Ageing: Private Meaning, Social Lives Margaret O'Neill and Michaela Schrage-Früh	1
1	Contemplation as Resistance to Ageism, and its Historical Context: Mexican Writers Carmen Boullosa, Guadalupe Nettel, and María Rivera Emily Hind	9
2	Ageing, Creativity, and Memory: The Evolution of Erica Jong's Literary Career Ieva Stončikaitė	23
3	From Girl to Grotesque: Exploring the Intersection of Ageing, Illness, and Agency in Auto/biographical Narratives About Seventies Icon Farrah Fawcett Lucinda Rasmussen	35
4	"A View from Old Age": Women's Lives as Narrated Through Objects Leonie Hannan, Gemma Carney, Paula Devine and Gemma Hodge	49
5	Reading Film with Age Through Collaborative Autoethnography: Old Age and Care, Encounters with Amour (Haneke, 2012), Chronic (Franco, 2015) and A Woman's Tale (Cox, 1991) Rita Ferris-Taylor, Jane Grant, Hannah Grist, Ros Jennings, Rina Rosselson and Sylvia Wiseman	66
6	Grace and Grit: The Politics, Poetics and Performance of Ageing as a Woman Ann Webster-Wright	93

7	Writing Life and Death Online: "I'm Not Sure How Many More Days I'll Have on the Computer"	108
	Cathy Fowley
8	Now that I'm Old: Life Writing, Women and Ageing	120
	Elisabeth Hanscombe
	Index	133