

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
PART I
Focusing on age and sex discrimination in Europe	I
1 Introduction: Older women in Europe and their rights ISABELLA PAOLETTI	3
2 Dismissed and invisible: How human rights law's treatment of age discrimination reflects the reality of older women's experiences in Europe ELAINE DEWHURST	32
3 Economic security of women in old age: The practice of gender equity under conditions of pension gaps and feminisation of households in old age in Europe ILONA KWIECIEŃ AND EWA POPRAWKA	51
4 Drawing attention to the oldest old women ISABELLA PAOLETTI	101

PART II

Discrimination versus inclusion and protagonism: Some examples from various European countries	123
5 From invisibility to empowerment: Narratives of older women in Moggach's The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel IEVA STONČIKAITĖ	125
6 Older women's portrayal in recent TV commercials in Romania: Old, reversed, and new stereotypes ANDRA-DINA PANĂ	145
7 Grandmothers' agency in care of grandchildren during the Covid-19 pandemic in Turkey GÜLÇİN CON WRIGHT	171
8 Struggles, social capital and transformation: Experiences of older women in late-life learning MARVIN FORMOSA	190
9 The importance of remembering that leisure is (also) a human right for the older people: Contributions from older Portuguese women who joined a leisure group MARIA ALEXANDRA D'ARAÚJO, JAIME RAÚL SEIXAS FONSECA, AND FERNANDO HUMBERTO SERRA	212
10 Older women and their opportunities to participate in culture, creativity and the arts in later life ELISABET CEDERSUND	234
11 Reimagining older women: From followers to active community leadership ELENA BENDIEN AND TINEKE ABMA	260
12 Conclusion: Rethinking ageing societies ISABELLA PAOLETTI	278
Index	294